

In Loving Memory of a

Very Special Husband

"When god was making husbands as far as I can see,
He made a special soulmate especially for me.
He made a perfect gentleman, compassionate and kind,
with more love and affection than you could wish to find.
He gave my darling husband a heart of solid gold,
he gave me wonderful memories only my heart can hold.
He was someone I could talk to, that no one can replace,
he was someone I could laugh with, till tears ran down my face.
Next time we meet will be at heavens door,
when I see you standing there I won't cry anymore,
I will put my arms around you and kiss your smiling face and the pieces of my broken heart will fall back into place."

The Life Story

Charles was born in Laurence South Carolina to his parents Janie Irby Conwell and Charles Conwell. He was the second child in this family. He departed this life on May 31, 2022. His parents and siblings preceded him in death.

Charles was a son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend. Most of all he was a child of God. He had a happy spirit and he loved to make you laugh. He was a hard worker and always gave his best at whatever job he was doing.

He believed in education and attended Benedict college in Columbia South Carolina where he played football. After serving in the United State's Army he moved to Philadelphia. His ability to work on machines allowed him to become a Circular Machine Mechanic until Knit Goods went out of business. He never retired he just started another career. He worked for Northeastern Treatment Center with foster children as a transportation driver.

Charles was good with children they loved to call him grandpop.

Charles was a-member of New Covenant Church of Philadelphia, where he worshiped until health prevented him from attending services, he attended by stream live.

Charles has been a victim of Dementia for over twelve years or more,he just kept going doing his best as long as he could. He truly was a fighter for life. God has been so good he allowed Charles to be home until he got to the end. Commpassius Hospice was able to make his transition manageable.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife Lola Conwell, his two biological children Darlen and Charles Conwell. Four living stepchildren, Margarite, Joseph, Annetta, and Tangela. Diane preceded him in death. A legacy of grandchildren and great grandchildren to many to name, a host of family members and friends, we will always cherish Charles memories in our heart.
