

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...
surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever....*

Debra was born on September 16, 1961, in Muleshoe, Texas, to her parents Erasmo Zamora, who preceded her in death, and Belia San Miguel Zamora, who also preceded her in death and Mother Antonia Zamora who survives her.

She spent most of her life in Amarillo, Texas, where she built a meaningful life centered around family, friendships, and service.

Debra was a proud graduate of Lazbuddie High School and continued her education at Amarillo College, where she studied Business Management. Debra dedicated many years of hard work and commitment to her career. She was employed at Amarillo State Bank and later became a devoted 30-year veteran of Baptist Saint Anthony's, where she touched many lives through her service and compassion.

Family was the heart of Debra's life. She is survived by her loving siblings: Geno Garcia and spouse Rosa Garcia; Sandra Zamora and spouse Telvi Quintanilla; Connie Garcia; Teresa (Terry) Hernandez and spouse Tony Hernandez; Cynthia Zamora Thompson; Erasmo Jr. Zamora; Ramon Zamora and spouse Phillip Zamora; and Mario Zamora and spouse Nancy Zamora. She also leaves behind many cherished nieces and nephews: as well as a cherished friend Norma Morales who will forever hold her memory close.

She was preceded in death by her brothers Jimmy Garcia and Franky Garcia. Franky's spouse, JoAnn Garcia, survives.

Debra found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved spending time with her family and friends, playing bingo, visiting casinos, and was a faithful fan of the Dallas Cowboys. Her laughter, warmth, and unwavering love will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Debra's life was a testament to kindness, resilience, and the importance of family. Her memory will live on in the hearts of those she loved and those who loved her.
