Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Acknowledgments

We are never quite prepared to face life's darkest hours alone. In such a time, the thoughtful expressions of family and friends in so many ways make the dawn come quicker, the burden lighter and the cross seem more like a crown. Every prayer, visit, card, call, flower and gifts of love and concern is deeply appreciated. May God continue to bless each and every one of you.
