In Loving Memory Of Delaney Blake McGillivary

Psalm 23:

The Lord is my Shepard; I shall not want, He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters; He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness For his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley Of the shadow of death; I will not fear no evil; For thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me In the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life; And i will dwell in the house of the Lord.

Forever

Delaney Blake McGillivray was born on November 16, 1994, in The Pas, Manitoba to the late Abigail McGillivray. Delaney was raised by Monica Ducharme until he was 11 months old. He then moved to Easterville, Manitoba to live with William & Linda Young for a short time. Delaney began his life here in Grand Rapids, Manitoba, raised by his parents the late Ethel Mae and the late Bill Scott, until his dear mother Ethel Mae passed away June 7, 2007. Then Bill met Irene Packo, and they raised Delaney together.

Delaney started his fishing journey at a young age, with his late brother in law Brent "Butch" Ballantyne. Delaney loved what he did out on the land. Fishing, hunting, and trapping with his best friend Kevin. Delaney enjoyed participating in traditional camps, and Sun dances. After his late dad Bill passed, he took on the role of taking care of his mother Irene, making sure she was fed, and well taken care of. Delaney loved, and grew up with his nieces and nephew, Tashina, Taylor and Tyson Ballantyne, and he also spent a lot of time at his sister Carol's.

Delaney was close to his family in Opaskwayak Cree Nation, where he went to visit his sisters, brother, aunties, and uncles. He would also drop in on his Granny Lillian and family. Delaney will always share his fishing and hunting stories, and he would always mention his boss, friend Kevin. Delaney loved to spend time with his nieces, nephews, and watch
