Life Reflections

Brenda Gail (Williams) Hal, age 69, passed away on March 3, 2026, in Gladstone, Missouri. She was born on November 23, 1956, in Helena, Arkansas to Luther Hal and Rena (Williams) Bell.

Brenda grew up in Kansas City, Kansas, graduating from Wyandotte High School. She futured her education through classes specific to the insurance industry, passing the test to obtain a state-issued Workers' Comp Claim Adjuster License.

She began a wonderful career as an Insurance Claim Adjustor straight out of high school in 1976 working 14 years for Cigna Insurance Company. Brenda loved the insurance industry and worked as a Claims Adjustor for Insurance Overload Systems for 14 years and Meadow Brook Insurance Company for 16 years with her career spanning 45 years, retiring in 2021. Brenda was blessed to become a mother of 2 wonderful, loving sons, Jamon and Bakari. She loved them dearly and they loved her just as much, if not more.

Brenda was well respected by many. "Family" meant everything to her and having a good time with good food. She loved to cook, talking on the phone with loved ones, and looking after her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Luther Hal and Rena (Williams) Bell; her stepfather, Cast Bell; her sister; Patricia Ann (Bell) Brown; and her brother, LeAnder Bell.
