LIFE REFLECTIONS

Theresa Beauford Little, daughter of the late Gilyard Beauford and Lular Taylor-Beauford, was born on December 20, 1934, in Jamestown, South Carolina. Theresa peacefully departed this life on Sunday, June 21, 2026 in Teaneck, NJ. She leaves behind a legacy of courage and love that will forever live in the hearts of those who knew her.

Theresa received her early education in the Berkeley County school system, attending Jamestown Elementary School and later Russellville High School. She was a member of Liberty Reformed Episcopal Church until her health declined. Her faith, along with her bold and tenacious spirit, shaped her life and deeply influenced all who were blessed to share in it.

From an early age, Theresa embraced responsibility with grace. Her life was marked by dedication and hard work, most notably through her many years of service in the Garment Care Industry while residing in New York. After retirement, she returned to her beloved home community of Savannah Creek, South Carolina.

Theresa had unwavering love and protection devoted to her siblings. Many will fondly remember the passion she displayed when it came to defending her siblings. Theresa also carried a vibrant appreciation for life, expressed through her love of high fashion, gardening, dancing, and live entertainment.

Theresa shared a devoted and loving marriage with her husband, William Wallace Little, who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her beloved siblings: Louise Whitaker, Lizzie Hawkins, Bertha Brunson, Douglas Beauford, Thomas Beauford, Albert Beauford, and Betty Beauford.

Theresa leaves behind a legacy of love that will be cherished by her family. She is survived by her three children: Anthony (Ivy) Fraiser of Cliffside Park, NJ; Patricia Beauford of Palisades Park, NJ; and Recco Beauford of Baltimore, MD. She also leaves ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, each of whom carries a piece of her enduring love.

Theresa is further survived by her cherished siblings: Willie James (Angie) Beauford of Darlington, SC; Yvonne Beauford of Englewood, NJ; Gilbert (Cynthia) Beauford of Savannah Creek, SC; and Sarah Beauford of Hackensack, NJ; along with one sister-in-law, Flora Mae Beauford of Savannah Creek, SC; one goddaughter, Mechelle Whaley; and a host of loving nephews, nieces, cousins, and dear friends.

Theresa Beauford Little’s life was one of love and unwavering resilience. Her memory will forever remain a blessing to all who knew and loved her. Though she has departed this life, the love she shared remains forever in our hearts. May the memory of Theresa Beauford Little continue to bring comfort, strength, and peace to all who loved her.

WE REMEMBER

*We remember with love a life that brought light and joy to all who knew you.
Your presence touched our family and friends
in ways that will never be forgotten.
Though we feel the ache of missing you,
we find comfort knowing you are free
from pain and sorrow.
Your memory is a treasure we will carry always
and your spirit will remain in our hearts.
Until we meet again, this is not goodbye
but a promise of love everlasting.*
