

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

On the evening of February 27, 2026, Sandra “Sandy” Faye Douglas, age 60, passed away peacefully in her home in Woodlawn, Ohio. Sandy was born in Cincinnati, Ohio to Reverend Isiah Evans and Johnie Mae Evans on September 21, 1965. She lived in Cincinnati all of her life. She gave her life to Jesus Christ at an early age, first as a longtime member of Bright Star Community Church and later as an active member of New Highpoint-Lighthouse Missionary Baptist Church, where she remained a member until her death.

Sandy has always loved children, and obtained first a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of Cincinnati and later a Masters Degree in Counseling Services from Capella University. Her care for children led her to St. Aloysius Group Home, where she worked with at-risk youth for many years. She ultimately landed at Cincinnati Children’s Heart Institute, where she worked as a Financial Analyst supporting their mission of caring for children with complex medical needs.

She was a supporter and protector for many; a confidant, listening ear and shoulder to cry on for many more. Sandy was blessed with wisdom and courage when it mattered. We are grateful that she left those qualities with us, now that she is resting in the arms of her Heavenly Father.

She is preceded in death by her beloved mother and sister Johnie Mae Evans and Stephanie Evans. She is survived by her children Brandon Douglas II, Illana Douglas, and Miles Douglas; her father Isiah Evans; her sisters Sheila Flynn and Shauna Hill; her brothers Chadwick (Kaneishia) Evans and Craig (Desiree) Evans; many aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins and friends. Also left to mourn her is her children’s father Brandon Douglas.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call
 I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way
 I found that peace at the close of the day
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered Joy
 A friendship shared,
 a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
 My life has been full, I've savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
 Lift up your heart and share with me
 God wanted me now, He set me FREE!
