THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The Family of TIFFANY MONTINA would like to express our deepest appreciation to those who have offered their prayers, support, and words of comfort to our family during our time of bereavement. THANK YOU for your loving condolences, for each spoken word has given us strength to make it through each passing day.

*May God continue to bless each of you is our prayer.
~ The Williams-Montina Family*

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

Life Story

TIFFANY DAWN WILLIAMS MONTINA

APRIL 1, 1981 - MAY 4, 2026

"A Beautiful Soul Never Dies; It Lives On in the Hearts It Touched."

Tiffany Dawn Williams Montina, affectionately known to many simply as "Tiffany," was born on April 1, 1981, in Madison, Florida, to James Williams and Glynis Boatman. On Monday, May 4, 2026, Tiffany quietly transitioned from labor to reward in Jacksonville, Florida, leaving behind a legacy filled with love, laughter, strength, and unforgettable memories.

Tiffany was a woman whose presence could brighten any room she entered. Full of life, vibrant energy, and an infectious smile, she had a personality that naturally drew people close to her. Whether among family, friends, coworkers, or strangers who quickly became friends, Tiffany had a gift for making others feel welcomed, valued, and loved. She never met a stranger and truly embodied the spirit of joy and celebration.

At an early age, Tiffany accepted Christ and carried within her a spirit of compassion, perseverance, and resilience throughout her life's journey. She cherished her family deeply and found her greatest happiness in the moments shared with those she loved most.

Tiffany received her education through the Madison County School System and later dedicated herself professionally as a Receiving Clerk with Henry Schein Medical Supply Warehouse. Through her hard work, commitment, and warm spirit, she developed meaningful friendships and earned the respect and admiration of many colleagues throughout her years of service.

Outside of work, Tiffany loved living life to the fullest. She had a passion for traveling, creating memories, laughing with loved ones, and embracing every opportunity to enjoy life's simple blessings. Her laughter was contagious, her love was genuine, and her heart was one of pure gold. To know Tiffany was to experience warmth, kindness, and authenticity.

As life's journey came to a close, God gently called Tiffany from earthly labor to eternal rest. Though her voice is now still and her earthly presence is missed beyond measure, the love she shared and the memories she created will forever live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

Cherishing her precious memories and legacy of love are her devoted husband, Wallace Montina; loving mother, Glynis Boatman; beloved children: Anthony Minor, Keyasme Montina, and Clemmesia Montina; cherished grandchildren: Paige Jackson, Jimmie Jackson, Jr., and Kyrie Tisby; sisters: Annie Williams and Jamie Williams; brothers: James, Bryan, Bryce, and Zacery Boatman; uncle: Felix Jackson; beloved nieces and nephews; devoted goddaughter: E'moni Wilcher; beloved aunts, Amanda and Cynthia Jackson; best friend: Kamecia Williams; special cousins: Willie Williams and April Roberts Williams; along with a host of many other sorrowing relatives, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever treasure her beautiful spirit and loving heart.

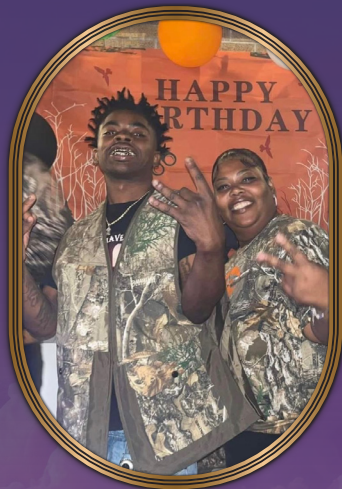

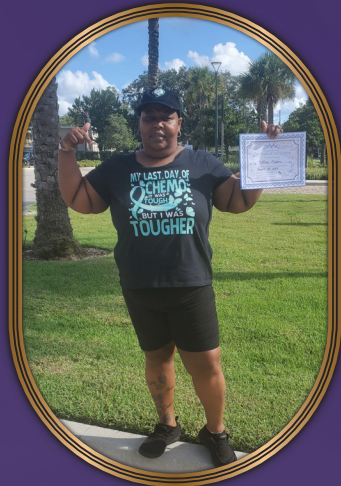

Tiffany Dawn Williams Montina was preceded in death by her father, James Williams.

"Your Love Will Forever Live Within Us"

Dear Tiffany,

As difficult as it is to place these words upon paper, we could never allow this moment to pass without speaking directly to the woman who meant so much to all of us. Though our hearts are heavy and our eyes filled with tears, we are comforted by the love, laughter, and memories you left behind.

Thank you for loving us so deeply and so genuinely. Thank you for every sacrifice made, every encouraging word spoken, every smile shared, and every moment you gave so freely to your family and friends. You had a way of making everyone around you feel special, seen, and loved. Your warmth filled every room, and your presence brought joy wherever you went.

The silence left behind by your absence is one we cannot fully describe, but even in our grief, we hear your spirit reminding us to stay strong, to stay together, and to keep living. And because of the love you poured into us, we want you to rest peacefully knowing... we are going to be alright.

We will carry your legacy forward with pride. We will continue loving one another, laughing loudly, showing kindness, and cherishing family just as you did. We will hold onto the beautiful lessons you taught us through the way you lived your life — with strength, resilience, compassion, and joy.

To your children and grandchildren, you were more than a mother and grandmother — you were home. Your love created memories that time can never erase. The sound of your laughter, the comfort of your embrace, and the wisdom of your words will remain in our hearts forever.

Your grandchildren want you to know:
"Grandma, we love you forever. Thank you for every hug, every smile, and every moment you made us feel special. We will make you proud and carry your love with us every single day."

Though life will never be the same without you physically here, your spirit surrounds us in every cherished memory, every shared laugh, and every quiet moment when we think of you. We thank God for allowing us the privilege of loving you and being loved by you.

So rest peacefully now, Tiffany. Your work here is done. Your love remains. Your memory will never fade.

Until we meet again...
Forever in Our Hearts,
Your Loving Family

A Letter From Tiffany
~ "Held by Grace, Surrounded by Love"~
"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"
— 1 Corinthians 15:55

To My Loving Family and Friends,

If you are reading these words, please know that although my earthly journey has come to an end, my love for each of you will live on forever. Do not allow your hearts to be overwhelmed with sorrow, because God has been far too good to me for me to complain.

Life was not always easy. There were days filled with challenges, tears, disappointments, and moments when I did not understand why certain things happened the way they did. But through it all, God carried me. He kept me, strengthened me, and surrounded me with people who loved me deeply. And when I look back over my life, I can truly say, "I Won't Complain."

To my husband, children, and grandchildren — thank you for being the greatest joys of my life. Every hug, every laugh, every phone call, every memory shared became treasures in my heart. Please continue to love one another, support one another, and hold tightly to family. Life is precious, and time together is a gift.

To my mother, siblings, nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends — thank you for every prayer, every encouraging word, every moment of laughter, and every act of love you poured into my life. Some of my happiest moments were simply being surrounded by the people I loved most.

Do not remember me only for the day God called me home. Remember the smiles, the jokes, the trips, the music, the conversations, and the joy we shared together. Remember how I loved to laugh and enjoy life. Carry those beautiful memories with you and let them bring comfort to your hearts in the days ahead.

Please do not allow grief to steal your peace. God makes no mistakes, and earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. I may be absent from the body, but I am resting safely in the arms of the Lord. There is no more pain, no more suffering, and no more worry — only peace everlasting.

When your hearts become heavy, lift your eyes toward Heaven and keep trusting God. Stay close to Him. Love harder. Forgive quicker. Cherish every moment with one another. And whenever you think of me, don't think only of tears — think of the love I gave, the laughter we shared, and the blessings God allowed us to experience together.

Thank you for loving me so completely. Thank you for carrying me through life with your prayers and support. And even now, from eternity, my love still remains with you.

Until we meet again...

With All My Love,
Tiffany
