Missing You Always

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
In Life I love you dearly.
In death I love you still.
In my heart I hold a place,
That only you can fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
A part of me went with you.
The day God took you home.

The Obituary

John (Bob) Lenon Bogan, Jr. was born to the union of John Lenon Bogan, Sr. and Naomi (Walker) Bogan, on April 14, 1946, in Magee, Mississippi. He received his wings on March 9, 2025.

At a young age, he moved to Chicago, Illinois, then later moved to Columbus, Ohio. After graduating from high school, he immediately enlisted into the United States Marine Corps, where he served for four years from 1965 to 1969. While serving in the military, he received several medals. After his honorable discharge from the military, he resided in Los Angeles, California.

In 1985, he met Ruthye Beamon and they remained together until his passing. He was an over-the-road truck driver for over 25 years and retired in April 2012.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John Lenon Bogan, Sr. and Naomi (Walker) Berry; sisters, Letitia Cook and Patricia Hale; brothers, Robert Berry, Sam Berry, and Gregory Berry; and nephew, Barry Cook.

Loving memories of John are cherished by Ruthye Beamon; daughter, Javon Bogan; son, Melvin Ray Raison (Dietra); brothers, Kent Berry (Carol) of Kansas City, Missouri, and Karl Bogan of San Diego, California; sisters, Sandra Mullins (Milton) of Mendenhall, Mississippi and Connie Bogan White of San Diego, California; cousin, Ora Powell of Mendenhall, Mississippi; stepdaughters, Vicki Hooks (Kevin), Darlene Thomas, and Tracey Jones; stepson, Paul Beamon; grandchildren, Miles Woods, Christopher Woods, Ka'Ron Jackson, Jr., Javontayvia Bogan, and Yvonna Woods; along with a host of great grandchildren, nephews and nieces.
