Scriptures

[Psa 90:1-12 NKJV] 1 A Prayer of Moses the man of God. Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations. 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, Or ever You had formed the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting, You [are] God. 3 You turn man to destruction, And say, "Return, O children of men." 4 For a thousand years in Your sight [Are] like yesterday when it is past, And [like] a watch in the night. 5 You carry them away [like] a flood; [They are] like a sleep. In the morning they are like grass [which] grows up; 6 In the morning it flourishes and grows up; In the evening it is cut down and withers. 7 For we have been consumed by Your anger, And by Your wrath we are terrified. 8 You have set our iniquities before You, Our secret [sins] in the light of Your countenance. 9 For all our days have passed away in Your wrath; We finish our years like a sigh. 10 The days of our lives [are] seventy years; And if by reason of strength [they are] eighty years, Yet their boast [is] only labor and sorrow; For it is soon cut off, and we fly away. 11 Who knows the power of Your anger? For as the fear of You, [so is] Your wrath. 12 So teach [us] to number our days, That we may gain a heart of wisdom.

[1Th 4:13-18 NLT] 13 And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. 14 For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died. 15 We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died. 16 For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves. 17 Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. 18 So encourage each other with these words.

OBITUARY

We are gathered here today to honor and celebrate the life of Courtney McIntosh. As we reflect on his journey, we are filled with both sadness and gratitude, for while we mourn his loss, we are also deeply thankful for the time we had with him.

Courtney was born on August 29, 1945, in Sargeant Street, St John on the island of Barbados, West Indies, to the late Oliver and Caryl McIntosh. From a young age, Courtney was known as the quiet, protector of his siblings. He was a "good big brother," doing whatever it took to ensure their safety and well-being. His protective nature stayed with him throughout his life.

Courtney attended Federal High School in St. Michaels, Bridgetown, Barbados, where he discovered his passion for mechanics—a skill that would shape his entire career. He worked tirelessly to hone this craft. After finishing school, he worked for The Ministry of Communication and Work (MCW) before going on to drive an ambulance for Queen Elizabeth Hospital. His work ethic was second to none; This was exemplified by the fact that he often left home 2 hours ahead of his start time to avoid being late because of traffic. It was evident that no matter what he did, Courtney gave it his all.

In June of 1978, Courtney, along with his beloved wife, Mazie, and their three children, made the decision to migrate to America and settle in Boston, where he found steady work as a mechanic at the Brush Hill Bus Company, where he worked for many years. Later, he spent another decade working at West Lynn Creamery in Lynn, MA before finally retiring from Paul Revere Bus Company in 2015

OBITUARY

Courtney's faith played a significant role in his life. In 1992, he began attending Beulah Pilgrim Holiness Church, where he quickly became involved in helping with the cleaning of the church, playing the guitar, and driving the church bus. In September of 1993, Courtney was baptized and received into fellowship at Beulah, marking a pivotal moment in his spiritual journey.

Courtney was predeceased by siblings: Earl, Vernon, Jocelyn and Neville McIntosh, Juanita Waldron, Olga Sealy, and Alma Caddle.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories, wife Mazie Eulene Atwell McIntosh of over 50 years. His children Tyrone McIntosh (Carol-Ann), Carolyn McFadden (Jeronino) and Shawn McIntosh. Grand children: Terrance McIntosh, Harris Carl Johnson (CJ), Talatha McIntosh, Meagan McIntosh, Jeronino Courtney McFadden, Erica McIntosh, KaShauna McIntosh, Caitlyn Leilah MaryAnn McFadden, Ja'nyah McIntosh, Erica and Mary Haywood.

Siblings: Jeffrey McIntosh (spouses-Edna and Deborah deceased) Wesley Judge McIntosh (Olga), David McIntosh (Beatrice) and Monica Williams (Ronald) and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and cousins. Additional relatives include the Antrobus, Barker, Boxill, Brathwaite, Greenidge, McIntosh, and Mullin Families of Barbados, USA and England.

As we say goodbye to Courtney today, we find comfort in the memories of the man he was. Though he may no longer be with us in body, his spirit will live in our hearts and in the love he shared.

To Mazie—his wife, and his partner—our hearts are with you. To his children, grandchildren, siblings, and extended family, we share in your sorrow and honor the life of a man who cared so much for those he loved. Rest in peace, Courtney. You will forever be in our hearts.
