

Victor Delbert Schlomer was born on November 5, 1927 to John and Hannah (Lemke) on the family farm south of Glenham, SD. He was baptized and confirmed at St. Jacobi Lutheran Church in Glenham. Vic was a lifelong member of St. Jacobi, which his father, uncle and others started and built. He graduated from Glenham High School in 1946.

Vic was drafted into the Army during the Korean Conflict and was inducted into the Army on January 17, 1951. He served two years in Germany and France and was discharged on December 31, 1952. On New Year's day 1953, he arrived home on the train and was met at the Glenham depot by his parents and Dorothy Haar.

On Easter Sunday, April 5, 1953, Victor and Dorothy Haar were united in marriage at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Roscoe, SD. They spent their married life living in Glenham. Vic spent the last two and half years of his life at the Prairie Sunset Assisted Living in Moberge, SD.

Victor worked for his brother Charlie at the Glenham Hardware store. He was also a backhoe operator. He put in the Glenham water and sewer system plus many water lines for ranchers and farmers in the area. He also dug many graves in the area and helped move many cemeteries along the Missouri River and in Kansas and Indiana. Later in life he worked for WEB water.

He was a lifelong member of St Jacobi Church Council, served as the Mayor of Glenham, the Glenham School Board, and was a member of the Moberge Rodeo Association.

His main hobby were his horses and going to rodeos. He participated in many rodeos, doing break-a-way roping and team roping.

The highlight of his life was being the Grand Marshal of the Moberge Fourth of July Parade and Sitting Bull Stampede Rodeo in 2018.

His other hobbies were hunting, bowling, trap shooting, playing softball (baseball in younger days), playing cards with family members and traveling to see his children. He was also a dedicated Twins and Vikings fan.

He was called to his heavenly home on May 28, 2021 at the age of 93.

Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones; All’s so happy, all’s so bright!
There’s perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief are over, Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the Valley of the Shade?
Oh, but Jesus’ love illuminated Every dark and fearful glade!
And He came Himself to meet me On the way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus’ arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth’s shadows, Pray to trust our Father’s will.
There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idle stand;
Do your work while life remaineth- You shall rest in Jesus’ land
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of the meeting! Oh, the joy to see you come!
