

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now, I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
I've found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

Herold Calvin Hubbard, age 100, of Chamberlain, SD died August 9, 2024 at Sanford Chamberlain Care Center.

Herold was born March 15, 1924, the sixth child of Walter and Alice (Jacobson) Hubbard in Presho, South Dakota. After graduation from Presho High School, class of 1942, Herold began a lifelong career in the farm implement business, joining his father, Walter. Herold continued to own and operate a Hubbard Implement Dealership until 2014, when at the age of 90, he retired.

Herold united in marriage with Janice F. Mckee on August 1, 1946, and they made their home in Presho until 1962, moving to Chamberlain when Herold purchased the IH company owned store. Herold's sons Dennis and Calvin later joined him in that business.

In 2017 Herold began his residency at the Chamberlain Sanford Care Center, where he celebrated his 100th birthday in March with family and friends.

He was a member of the United Church of Christ in Chamberlain.

Gratefully sharing his life are his daughter Connie (Drake) Wood of Lennox, SD, son Calvin Hubbard of Chamberlain, daughter in law Carla (Balster) Hubbard of Chamberlain, eight grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren, and many other friends and relatives.

Preceding him in death were his parents, his wife Janice, son Dennis, five brothers, and four sisters.
