

ABLI'S BIOGRAPHY

In Loving Memory of Mama Miriam Ambe Anagho

Mama (fondly called "ABLI ALLEH") was a remarkable woman who touched the lives of everyone she met. She was a loving mother, devoted wife, sister, aunt, and cherished friend. Her kindness, generosity, and compassion were felt by all who knew her.

She was born on January 1st 1940 in Sabri Ngwo to Mama Abake and Pa Atekwana Agho. She grew up in Sabri and eventually got married to late Papa David Emene Anagho. Mama Miriam Ambe Anagho gave birth to seven children three boys and four girls. She migrated to Maryland USA to join her family in 2006 where she resided until Jan 7th, 2024, when she embarked on her eternal journey.

Mama was a devoted mother who always put her family first. She was a constant source of love and support; children were her greatest joy. She was also a dedicated wife who shared a deep and abiding love with her husband.

She was an active member of her community with the Christian Women Fellowship (CWF) group and the hallelujah Choir at her native PC Sabri Congregation in Cameroon. During her time at the Sabri congregation, she rose to the rank of ELDER and managed church affairs for over fifteen years until she moved to the USA. Then she became a faithful member of the Grace Presbyterian Church Lanham Maryland USA until her passing.

She is survived by 6 children, 21 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren, 2 brothers and a host of nieces/nephews. Mama will be deeply missed by her family and all who had the privilege of knowing her at any point in her life. Her legacy of love, humility, kindness, and compassion will live on in the hearts of those she touched.

Rest in peace "Abli Alleh".
