

Final Words To Our Dear Mother

Dear Mommy,

I never could have imagined I would lose my best friend like this, we had so much planned and also so many memories. You were the greatest mother there ever was from the laughs to the cry's good times and the bad there isn't any one that could ever do it better. We did everything together and shared so much that I still can't believe it's come to an end and all that would be left are memories. You left a big mark on the world and was special to so many people I use to joke and tell you as long as you had so many people that loved you I would have to do it a little less cause we could just put it all together but now I just wish that you could tell me you love me once more. I have to be strong and carry on without you but just promise me mommy you will be by my side to push me along,

Love your baby boy Taè

Mom, I just wanted to express something to you. I always looked up to you and admired your incredible strength. Your unwavering love and dedication to putting your children first never went unnoticed. I am proud to say that you were the most important influence in my life. Your presence was powerful and comforting, and I will choose to remember you with a smile instead of tears. It's clear to me now that you were my hero. I love you deeply, and I know you are my guardian angel now. - T'Kira.

Obituary

Today we come together to celebrate, not to mourn, the wonderful life of Tiwanda Terrell Fambro, who was born on February 8, 1968.

Tiwanda entered this world ahead of schedule at 7 months, weighing only 4lb 3oz, earning her the affectionate nickname "Peanut." Tiwanda was a one of a kind spirit— full of joy, laughter and energy at every gathering. Rather that was line dancing, camping, karaoke or at the family farm; one could count on her spirit to fill the room. Being with family brought her immense happiness!

Tiwanda graduated from Mt. Healthy High School and Diamond Oaks in 1987. During her senior year of Mt. Healthy High School, Tiwanda received a scholarship to the Pratt Institution for Design and Arts in Chicago, Illinois. Despite this incredible opportunity, she made the difficult decision to turn it down in order to remain close to her family.

In 1993, Tiwanda's dream of becoming a mother finally came true. Since then, she has been a devoted and dedicated mom, always going above and beyond for her children. Tiwanda encourages her children to pursue their interests and dreams, helping them build confidence and resilience. She also shows love and affection, providing emotional security for them. Their relationships were unmatched.

Tiwanda excelled in a multitude of positions, but her true calling was undoubtedly her role as a Head Cook at Mt. Healthy Jr and Sr High where she was employed for two decades. Known as Miss T, she was the disciplinary one who maintained order among the students. "Pull up your pants, stop playing around in here, and keep your voices down," were common phrases from her. She even went as far as paying for lunches for students in need. Her connection with the students was undeniable, and her dedication was unwavering. In addition to her primary role, Tiwanda took on extra responsibilities such as being a crossing guard, chauffeuring parents & faculty in a golf cart to and from the Mt Healthy High Stadium for football games and track meets.

In March 2022, Tiwanda's sister, Apryll motivated her to launch a cleaning company. Tiwanda seized this opportunity and proudly established Gracefully Cleaning Services. With determination, she honed her skills in building client relationships and secured several weekly and biweekly contracts.

Tiwanda possessed a multitude of superpowers: she brought happiness to others by reaching out and letting them know she cared, a handy helper who would eagerly help paint walls, decorate/stage a home, hang TVs, or assemble furniture. Tiwanda was often times the comedian of the family, and provided fun-spirited banter. She was truly remarkable in her own unique way. Tiwanda went out of her way to support family and friends and she was consistently present. Despite her occasional snappish, smart alec and matter-of-fact demeanor, she was also affectionate, loving, and kind. You could always rely on her to be there and offer assistance.

Her beautiful life will be cherished by the loved ones she left behind; her loving her children; Tion Fambro, T'Kira Fambro, and Lyndon Dangerfield, mother; Marcella Satterwhite, siblings; Darlene Milton, Angela Daniels, George (Sue) Satterwhite, Jr., William Maurice Bradley, Shawn (Angie) Satterwhite, Dione Cross and her little big sister Apryll (Quincy) Watkins; two aunts Renae Brown and Patricia Fambro; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, friend and co-workers; and a special relationship with her great niece Kylie J. Fambro.
