

SEASONS OF LIFE

Spring is like a beauty fair Of being born anew,
 The sweetness of this time in life When everything is new.
 Summer is a learning time, This experience sincere.
 Our God is more pronounced in us, We can feel Him ever near.
 The Fall of life is when we feel The changing of the guard,
 A sweet and gentle day in life For which we've worked so hard.
 In Winter will turn From all the past's sweet scenes.
 We find them in our memory; We feel them in our dreams.
 So, we live life's seasons; How grand it was to be Trying all of the time, my God, To be closer yet...to Thee.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much for whatever part."

SCRIPTURE

*For everything there is a season,
 And a time for every matter under heaven:
 A time to be born and a time to die;
 A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
 A time to kill and a time to heal;
 A time to break down and a time to build up;
 A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
 A time to mourn and a time to dance;
 A time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones together;
 A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
 A time to seek and a time to lose;
 A time to keep, and a time to throw away;
 A time to tear, and a time to sew;
 A time to keep silence and a time to speak;
 A time to love, and a time to hate,*
