Everybody Knows.

You can't be all things to all people.

You can't do all things at once.

You can't do all things better than everyone else.

Your humanity is showing just like everyone else's

So...

You have to find out who you are, and be that.

You have to decide what comes first and do that.

You have to discover your strengths, and use them.

You have to learn not to compete with others.

Because no one else is in the contest of "being you."

Then...

You will have learned to accept your own uniqueness.

You will have learned to set priorities and make decisions.

You will have learned to live with your limitations.

And you'll be a being that's vitally alive.

Dare to Believe...

That you are a wonderful, unique person.

That you are a one-in-all-history event.

That it's more than a right, it's your duty, to be who you are.

That life is not a problem to solve, but a gift to cherish.

And you'll be able to stay one up on what used to get you down.

FOLLOW THE PLAN

Ventnor T. Wright, Funeral Director, Supervisor

Bernice Elain Cooper Hurst, 80, of Coatesville, was called home to be with the Lord on Monday, June 17, 2024, while surrounded by her loving family, at the Chester County Hospital in West Chester, PA.

Raised in Parkesburg, PA, Bernice was one of ten children born to the late Gladys (Waters) Cooper and James Cooper, Sr. She was the wife of Clinton C. Hurst.

Over the years, she worked as a nurse's assistant at Embreeville Hospital, a seamstress at the Coatesville Sewing Factory, a nurse's aide at Main Line Rehabilitation, a teacher's aide at the Chester County Intermediate Unit, and a riveter for the Budd Trailer Company.

Bernice enjoyed antique auctions, flea markets and was an avid yard sale seeker. She was a stylish dresser and was a great cook. She was a devout believer and her faith was paramount. She enjoyed taking daily walks and listening to the sounds of Oldies music and Gospel Hymns, but being with her children, grandchildren, and family was what brought her the most joy.

She was predeceased by her brothers, Donald Cooper, James Cooper, Richard Cooper, and William Cooper; sisters, Dolores Peter, Eleanor Dixon, and Joyce Dixon.

In addition to her husband, Clinton C. Hurst; Bernice is survived by her son, Maurice K. Hurst (Lynn) of Coatesville; four daughters, Leslie A. Hurst, Candace Luby (Stephan), Ina B. Hurst, and Yvette L. Hurst, all of Coatesville; two sisters, Margaret Stewart of Parkesburg, and Jacqueline London of Oxford; god-daughter, Taylor Dixon of Atglen; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Her gentle spirit and kind heart will be missed by all who knew her.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
