

TO THOSE I LOVE

If I should ever leave you whom I love
 To go along the Silent Way, grieve not,
 Nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk
 Of me as if I were beside you there,
 (I'd come... I'd come, could I but find a way!
 But would not tears and grief be barriers?)
 And when you hear a song or see a bird I loved,
 Please do not let the thought of me be sad...
 For I am loving you just as I always have...
 You were so good to me!
 There are so many things I wanted still to do...
 So many things to say to you...
 Remember that I did not fear...
 It was just leaving you that was so hard to face...
 We cannot see Beyond... But this I know;
 I loved you so...
 'Twas heaven here with you!

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

Kyree
KADEEM
WILLIAMS, SR.

Kyree Kadeem Williams, Sr., born on July 8, 1989, to Carla Williams and the late Keith O'Brian Williams, departed this life on March 7, 2026. He was a beloved son, brother, father, grandson, and friend who is remembered for his easy-going personality, his love for music and rapping, and the joy he brought to family gatherings.

Kyree attended the Mitchell County School System, where he began to form friendships that would last a lifetime. He confessed his life to Christ at a young age at Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church in the Greenough Community, a foundation that would guide him throughout his life.

Professionally, Kyree was employed with Sanderson Farms and Solar Fields, where he was known for his strong work ethic and dedication. His colleagues and friends admired his likable demeanor, making him a valued team member who brightened the work environment.

Above all, Kyree cherished his son, Kyree Kadeem Williams Jr., living life as a proud father. His family recalls many fond memories of their time spent together, highlighting his caring nature and commitment to those he loved.

Kyree is preceded in death by his father, Keith O'Brian Williams.

Kyree's family includes his son, Kyree Kadeem Williams Jr.; mother, Carla Williams, of Albany, Georgia; sisters Kandweika Johnson and Sakeitha Williams, both of Albany, Georgia; Teandra Clayton of Camilla, Georgia; and brother Charles Westbrook of Camilla, Georgia. He also leaves behind grandparents Barbara Williams and Earlene Johnson, along with two nephews, Keyser Williams and Joaquin Walker of Albany, Georgia, and two nephews from Camilla, Georgia. Additionally, he is survived by a host of aunts, uncles, relatives, and friends who will remember him dearly.

Kyree Kadeem Williams, Sr. will be deeply missed by all who knew him, and his legacy of love and joy will continue in the hearts of his family and friends.
