Obituary

Furquan James Malik (Meatball) Boykin passed away on Monday, March 1, 2021. Born on July 25, 1977, in Newark, NJ, he was the son of Michelle Boykin Carter and stepson of Thomas Carter IV.

Furquan attended West Side High School and graduated in 1994. He later studied at Essex County College for Business Administration. He also received his Black Seal License. He later became an entrepreneur and salesman. With the gift of gab, Furquan had the ability to sale salt to a slug. He was very advanced with technology and could teach himself any skill. He turned his self taught skills into successful business ventures.

Furquan was a car guru, who loved cars. He had a joyful spirit and would fill any room with jokes and high energy. Furquan had a big heart; He gave to everyone and was a mentor to many. He was a legend on 19th and 20th street. He was the “Party time” king!

He is survived by his mother Michelle and stepfather Thomas; His sons Nazir, Rahfee, and Furquan Jr.; His daughters Anijah, Monair, Mia and Mya; His grandsons Aariz and Amari. He is also survived by his siblings Tameika, Shadu, Thomas and Tonjia; His grandmother Camilla; His close cousins Crystal, Shante and Kaderia; and his special friend Nakkiya; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
