Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet fight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.

IN APPRECIATION

The family of the late Tony Ervin Hayes sincerely thank each of you for the many acts of kindness and all other expressions of sympathy extended to us during our time of bereavement. May God bless each one of you.

Life Reflections

Tony Ervin Hayes was born in Camden, SC on September 26, 1961. He was the son of the late Mr. Earl Hayes, Sr. and Leila Hayes of Camden.

Tony was educated in the Kershaw County Public School System. He found God as a member of the St. Paul United Methodist Church. He was a dedicated member of the Usher Board and was the Custodian until his health failed. Tony would do anything to help someone.

Tony was preceded in death by two sisters: Gladys Jean and Jeanette Hayes.

Those left to cherish his precious memories are his daughter: Ivy Fowler of Columbia, SC; one son: Kenton Hayes of Charlotte, NC; one sister: Lillie Mae Boykin (Herbert); two brothers: Earl Hayes, Jr. and James Hayes (Myrtle); Nephews and Nieces: Toni Boykin of Columbia, SC, Nevin Hayes (Sinia) of Harrisburg, NC, Marcus Hayes of Charlotte, NC, Earl Hayes, III of Camden, SC, Alton F. McDow of Georgia, and Kevin Hayes (Gina) of Los Angeles, CA; and very special niece: Laya Hayes; a very special friend: Angie; and a host of relatives and friends.
