Life Story

Alexandria R. Noil, a vibrant spirit whose life was filled with promise and determination, was born on June 30, 2001, in Houston, Texas. She departed this life peacefully on August 8, 2025.

From an early age, Alexandria demonstrated a deep faith, accepting Christ and being baptized by Rev. Paul Cannings at the Living Word Fellowship Church in Houston. Her spiritual journey shaped her character and influence on those around her. Alexandria graduated from Waltrip High School in 2019, where she was known for her kindness and dedication to her studies. She continued her academic pursuits at Prairie View A&M University, working diligently towards a Master's degree in Occupational Therapy, complemented by a minor in Social Work. Her passion for helping others was evident in her chosen profession, as she served as a Quality Assurance Analyst at ICON Health Solutions.

Alexandria is preceded in death by her Grandparents Warren and Maureen Jones of St. Martinville La. and William and Dorothy Noil of Houston, Tx.

Alexandria leaves behind a loving family who will cherish her memory and spirit forever. She is survived by her father, Reginald Noil; her mother, Stacey Jones-Mathews; and her step-father, Byron Mathews, Aunt Monica Jones of St. Martinville, La., Aunt Leona Noel of Baton Rouge La. and Uncle Scott Jones of Dallas Tx. She is also remembered fondly by her brother, JaMorcus Travham (Brittney); her sister, Bria Noil; as well as her two step-sisters, Neisha and Brandi Mathews all of Houston, Tx. In addition, Alexandria was a proud aunt to three nephews and three nieces, all of Houston, Tx. each of whom brought her joy and filled her life with laughter.

Alexandria R. Noil's legacy is defined by her dedication to education, her commitment to helping others, and the loved ones she leaves behind. Her unyielding spirit and the love she shared will continue to inspire those who had the privilege of knowing her.
