Obituary

Beverly Trudie Cohen Capers was born on January 31, 1957, to Marvin and Dorothy Cohen in Savannah, Georgia. She grew up in the Dixon Park neighborhood and attended the Chatham County Public Schools. At an early age, she accepted Christ into her life. She joined and was baptized at First Evergreen Missionary Baptist Church in Savannah. She had a love for praise, worship, and spending time with the Lord. She believed in the power of prayer.

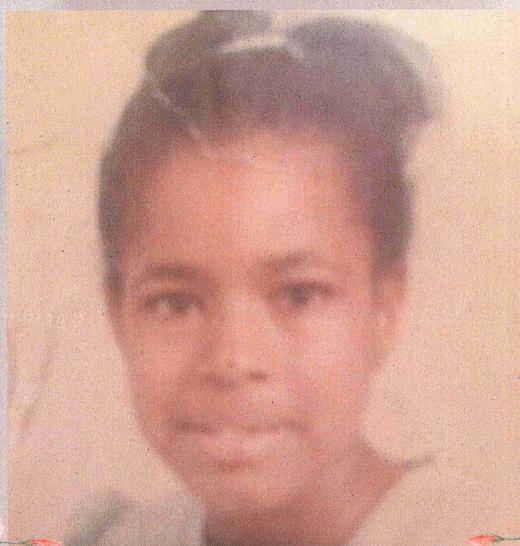

Beverly lived a life filled with love, kindness, and service. She was the life of the party and would light up a room with her sense of humor, love for dancing, and storytelling. She enjoyed the beach and spending time with family, specifically her four grandchildren. No matter the occasion, you could always count on her to be there and show her support.

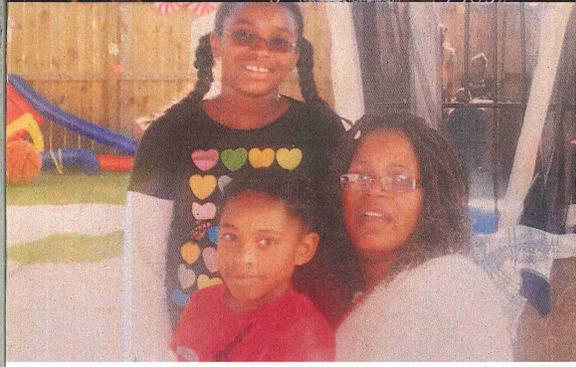

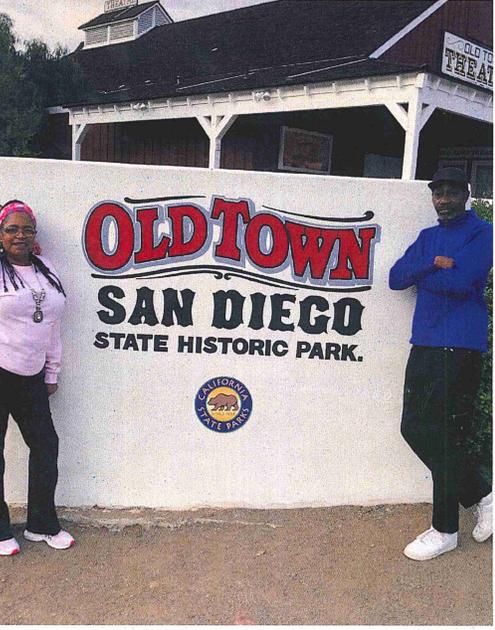

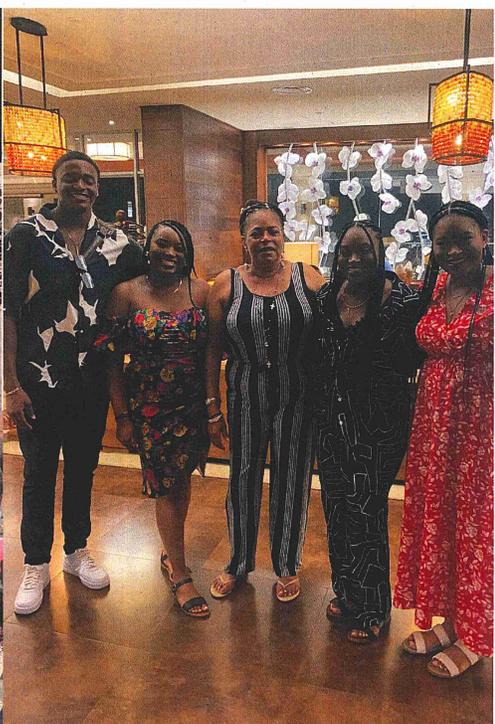

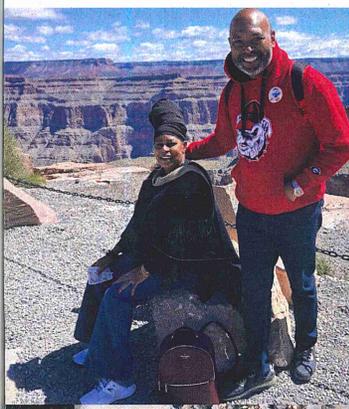

Early in her career, she was employed at the Savannah Morning News in the circulation department. She also worked extensively in the service, tourism, and hospitality industries in Georgia and South Carolina throughout her life. Everyone who knew her understood her attention to detail and her ability to make everyone feel comfortable. She never met a stranger!

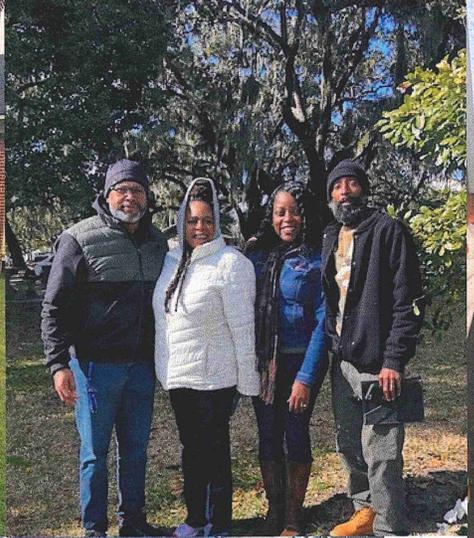

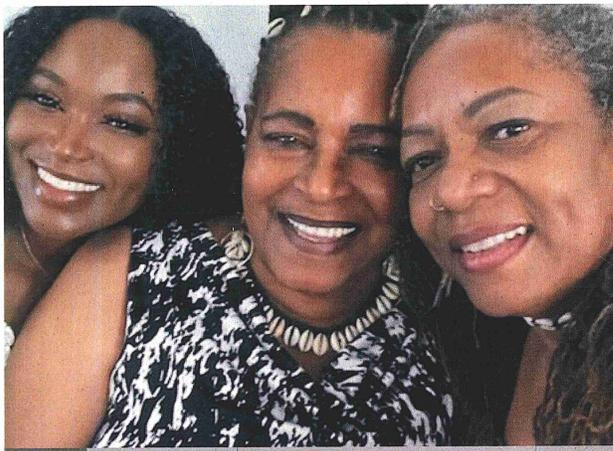

Beverly understood the role of elders in a family. She consistently made an effort to build relationships across the generations of her own family. She was intentional about staying connected and building bonds with her extended family members. Her face was always seen at important events; whether it was births, weddings, graduations, or birthday parties, Beverly could be counted in the number.

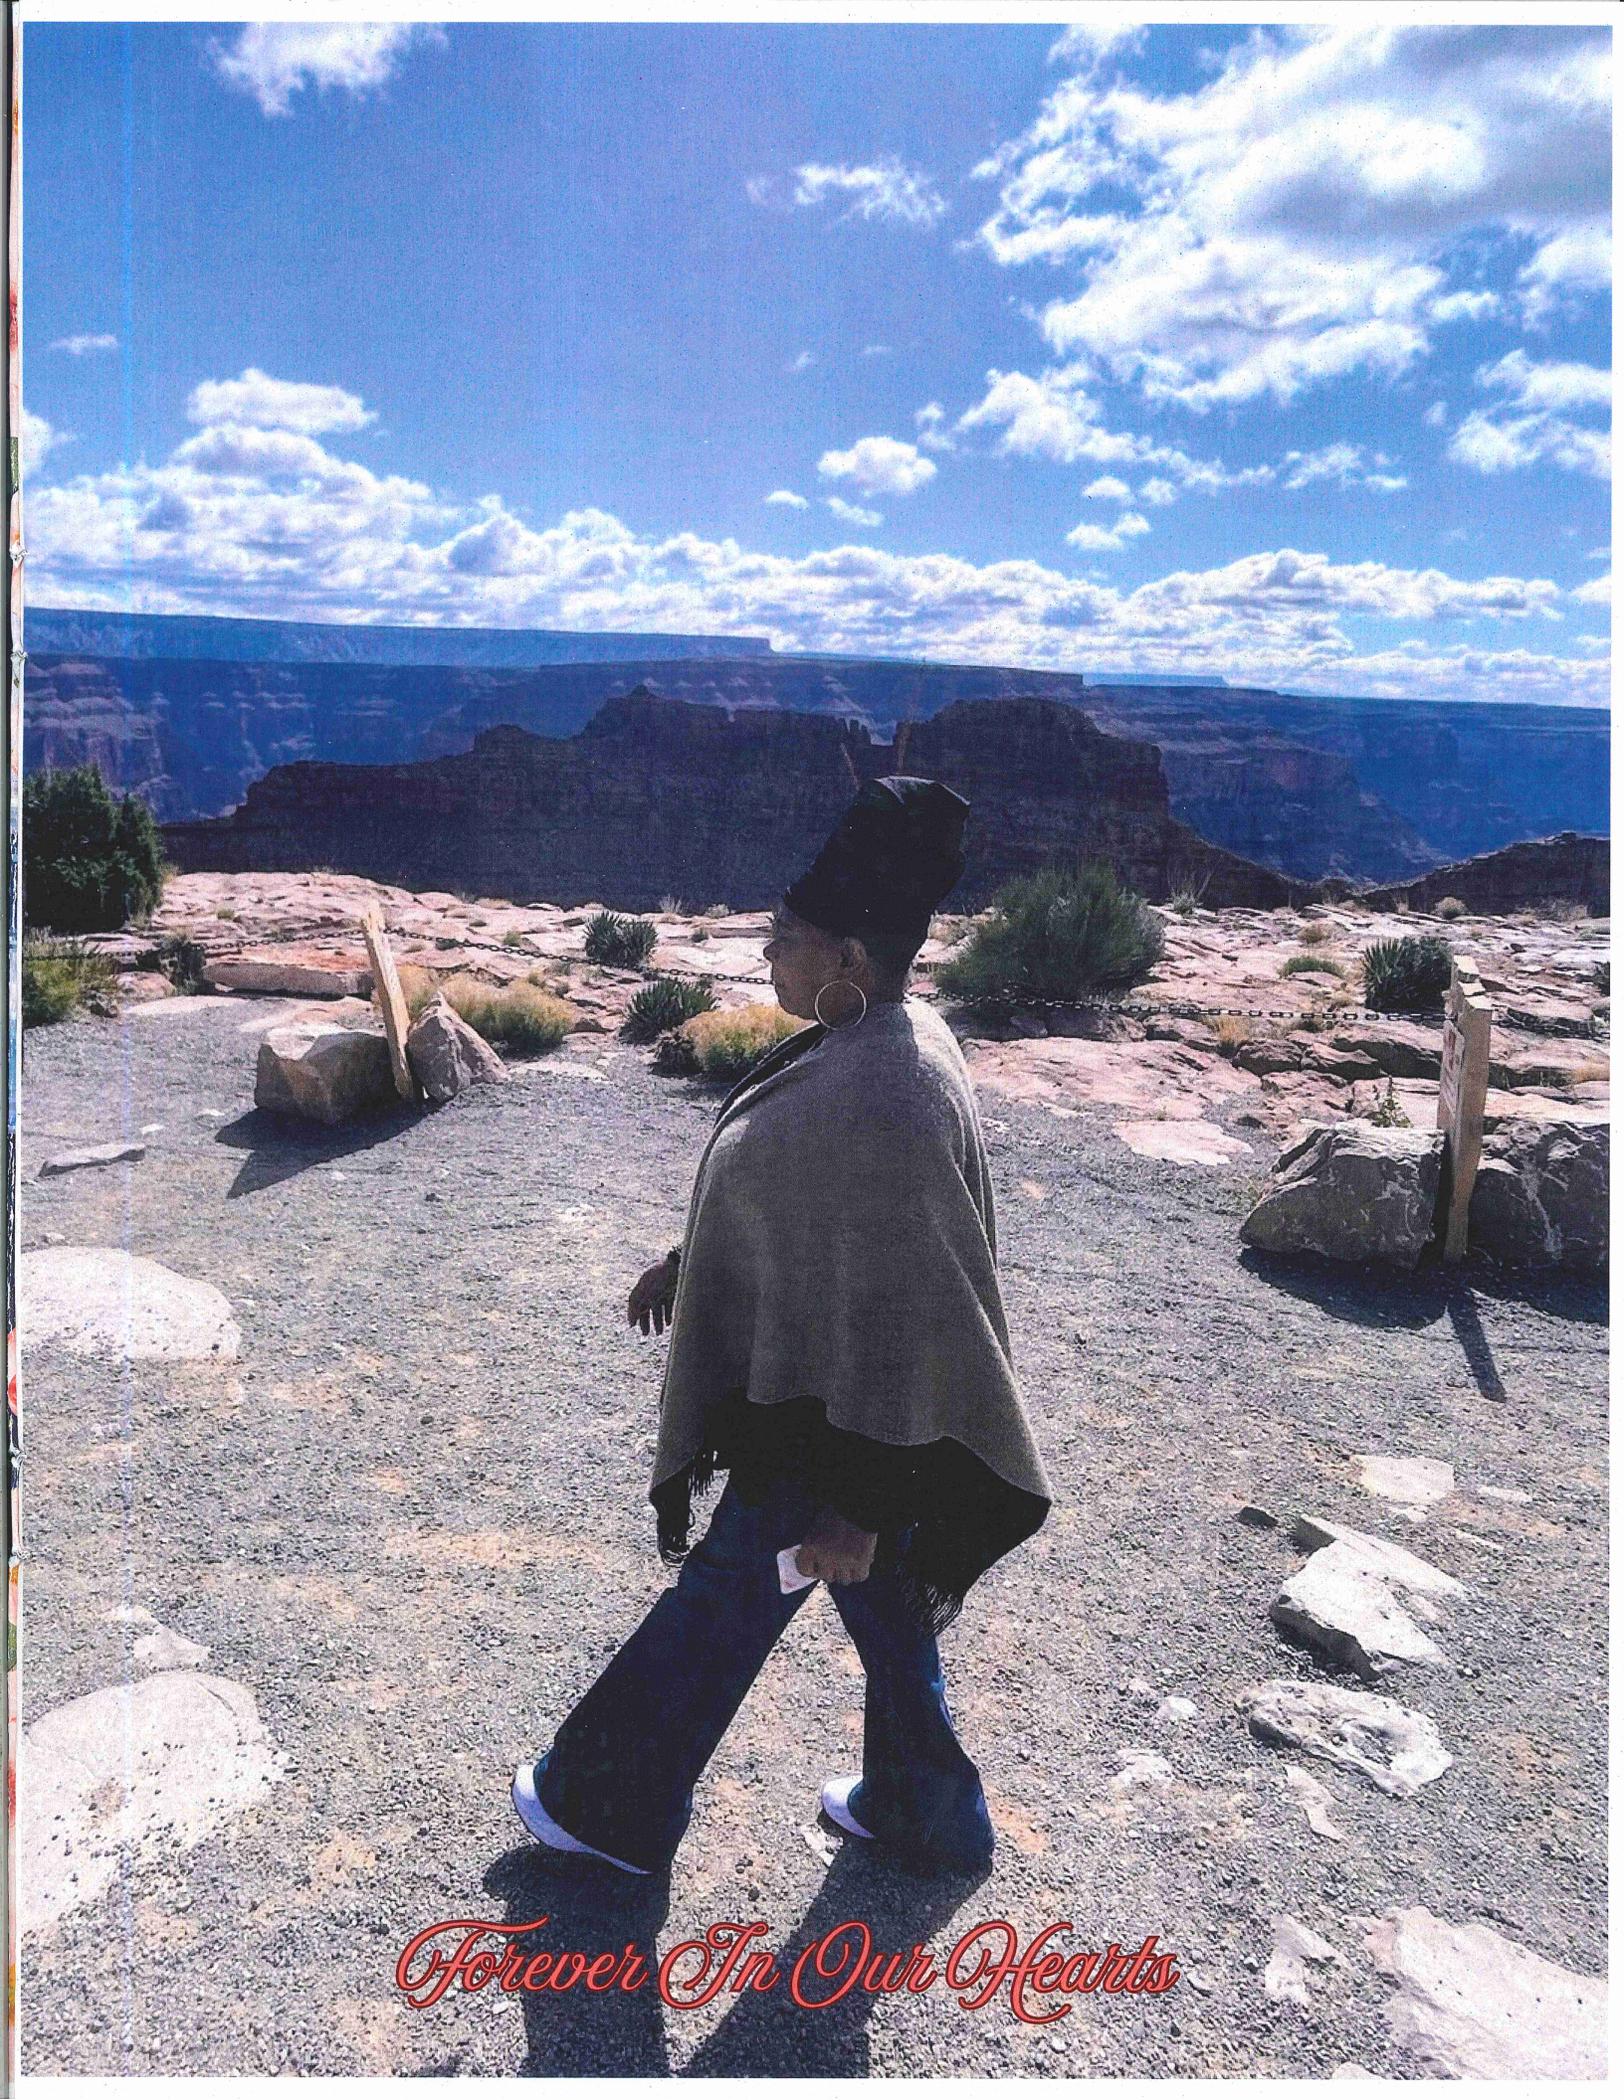

She will be deeply missed and her memory cherished by her two children, Shawn Cohen (Chandra) and LaShawna Harris (David); her grandchildren, Lindsey Cohen, Leah Cohen, Leslie Cohen, and Chancellor Rivers Jr.; sister, Lisa Anderson; brothers, Lee Marvin Cohen (JoAnn), Alvin Cohen (Daisy); aunt, Claudette Fields; neices, Tika Mumford, Alvonya Cohen, and Taminya Cohen; nephew, Tommy Bing Jr.; godson, RaShawn Mangum; lifelong friend Janice Engram, and a host of cousins, great nephews, great nieces, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Marvin and Dorothy Cohen; grandparents, Willie and Louise Cooper; siblings, Daniel Mumford Jr., Michael Cohen, Sheila Bing, and Carolyn Mumford; and aunts Delores Walker and Willie Dean Howard (Bobbie Joe).
