“THIS IS MY STORY...”

LaKeta Robyne Sue Thompson was born on May 4, 1963 to the late Betty Lewis and Nathaniel Thompson, Jr. at the Claremore Indian Hospital in Claremore, Oklahoma. Everyone knew her as Keta.

At an early age she was baptized at Handy Chapel AME church in Beggs, Oklahoma and later rededicated her life back to God, on November 5, 2017 at the First Baptist Church-South under Pastor Greg Lewis. Until her health failed, she was a faithful member.

On July 25, 2026, the Lord took Keta's hand and led her to a better resting place. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Bo and Sonny Hayden, sister, Lamisha, nephew Scotty and niece LaGina.

Keta attended Beggs Schools and graduated in 1981. When Beggs All School reunion first started, she was the secretary. She was the type of person that did whatever she could for somebody. All they had to do was call her and she was going to do whatever she could.

Keta loved to work with people. Being a people person, she worked at nursing homes, Wal-Mart, bus driver, Bama Pie and home Health. She also joined the horse club Desperados and the Dead end Posse. She never met a stranger and loved to dance. Many people called her the “Dancing Queen”. She also taught a dancing group 50 and over called Older and Bolder dance group. She even had them on TV. She did that from her heart. That was one of her passions.

She leaves to cherish her memories two sons: Kendrick Johnson and Kendall Carter and daughter Whitney Thompson, all of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Five grandchildren, Jaylon Bourn, Darieon Johnson, Dalyn Williams, Breylin Williams and Zariel Wilson. One granddaughter-in-law Kailyn Johnson. Three sisters Pearlle Bennett of Tulsa, Oklahoma, LaNita (Martin)Lang of Boynton and Alfreda Porter of Okmulgee, Oklahoma. Two brothers Nathan Mills and Alvin (Michelle) Dixon, both of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Also a host of nieces, nephews other family and friends.
