REMEMBER ME

Don't remember me with sadness,

Don't remember me with tears,

Remember all good times,

Shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented

That my life it was worthwhile,

Because I know by loving you

That I made you smile.

When you are walking down the street

And you've got me on your mind,

I'm walking in your footsteps

Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy

Just because I'm out of sight,

Remember that I'm with you

Every morning, noon and night.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy, words of comfort and prayers during our time of bereavement. May God forever bless and keep each of you in His tender loving care.

LIFE STORY OF

Otho Williams Jr.

OTHO WILLIAMS JR., born on January 22, 1958, in Philadelphia, PA, passed away on May 30, 2025, at the age of 67. Otho was a beloved member of his community and a cherished husband to Ellen Wilson. His vibrant spirit and infectious laughter made an indelible mark on the lives of those who knew him.

Otho found joy in simple pleasures, often spending his time dancing, singing, and making those around him laugh. He had a unique talent for bringing happiness into the lives of others, lighting up every room he entered. His warm personality and generous heart will be deeply missed by his friends and family.

He is survived by his mother, Arlene Williams; father, Otho Williams; brother, Tyrone Williams; niece, Michelle Preston; and his devoted wife, Ellen Wilson. Otho's legacy of love and joy will live on in their hearts forever.
