Reflections Of Life

Stacy Nicole Carter was born on February 6, 1987, to Nina J. Robins and James K. Williams Jr. She was a beloved daughter, mother, wife, sister, aunt, family member, and friend whose presence brought love, laughter, and joy to the lives of so many.

Stacy was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Frances Buckingham and John Q. Robins Sr.; her aunts and uncles, Josephine Johnson, Louise Bates, John Robins Jr., Linda Cason, Francine Robins, Robert Robins, and William Robins; and her paternal grandparents, James K. Williams Sr. and Lois J. Williams (Ferguson), along with her aunts and uncles Laura Allen, Sharon Aaron, Fostina Spencer, Carol J. Williams, Wanda Dennis, Lester Daniels Sr., Willie Daniel Sr., Donald Williams, Steven Williams, George Robinson, and Stephen Robinson.

Stacy received her education in the Kansas City School District and graduated from Central High School. After graduation, she entered the workforce and built a career working as a security guard at various locations. She eventually found her calling as a Supervisor of Guided Assistance for the airports. She began her supervisory career in Kansas City, Missouri, and later relocated to Las Vegas, Nevada, taking her position and family with her.
Stacy had a warm and lighthearted spirit that made people feel comfortable and loved in her presence. She enjoyed entertaining, spending time with family and friends, preparing a good meal, playing board games, and simply enjoying life with the people she loved. She was always willing to help others and had a heart for those around her. Many affectionately called her "SIS," a name that reflected the love and closeness people felt toward her.
Stacy met and married DeAnthony Smith Sr., and although their marriage later ended in divorce, they were blessed with children together. Stacy later met and married William C. Carter on October 8, 2018. When Stacy became ill and was no longer able to care for herself, she returned from Las Vegas, Nevada, to Kansas City, Missouri, where she resided with her sister Belinda. She was cared for by her family. Stacy was embraced with love, comfort, and support of those closest to her.

Stacy leaves behind a beautiful legacy of love and cherished memories. She leaves to cherish her memory with her mother, Nina J. Robins; her father, James K. Williams Jr. (Faye); bonus mother, Linda Wells; aunts and uncles, Thomas Robins, Carl Robins, Shirley Robins, Rebecca Parker, Rita Daniels, and Ruthie Danials; her husband, William C. Carter; sons, Remel Robins, Phillip Lora, and DeAnthony Smith Jr.; daughters, Maliyah Robins and Shanae Smith; bonus daughters and sons; sisters, Belinda Rochester (DeMonte), Stephanie Williams, Bernice Phillips, Dorothy Wells, Monica Lewis, and Jennifer Johnson; brothers, Mark A. Robins, James K. Williams III, Cody Sullivan, Myron Parish, and Brodrick Parish; along with a host of other loving relatives, friends, and loved ones. Though Stacy is no longer with us in person, the love she gave, the laughter she shared, and the memories she created will remain in the hearts of everyone who knew and loved her. Her life touched many, and her memory will continue to live on through her children, family, friends, and all those who were blessed to know her.
Stacy will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.
