

Poem To Our Dad

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch

If my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief

Lift up your heart, share with me,

God wanted me now,

He set me free.

Obituary

Mr. Terrye Lynn Olverson, affectionately known by his family and friends as “T.O”, was born October 22, 1958 in Eden, North Carolina to the late John Olverson and Vivian Hairston Olverson.

Terrye attended Dudley High School in Greensboro, NC. He worked as a carpenter and was a highly skilled and sought-after painter until his health declined.

He was a member of Robinson Memorial United Holiness Church. Prior to his illness, he served as President of the Male Choir and also held roles as a trustee, usher, missionary, and member of the evangelism ministries and maintenance.

He was known for his infectious and humorous personality. He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and fishing. He was a devoted fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Carolina Panthers, and he loved watching boxing and CNN.

He departed this life on Sunday, March 8, 2026, at his home. He was preceded in death by his brothers Alvert and Von.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his wife Norma Olverson; seven children, Tameka Mills of Lawrenceville GA, Chellie Mills-Adams (Alpheus) of Axton Va, Terrye Hairston of Raleigh NC, Justyn Duke (Cortney) of Fort Meade MD, Terrence Maddox (Jerika) of Cincinnati OH, Tyshawyn Olverson (Brittany) of Charlotte NC, and Aliayh Olverson of Raleigh NC; 11 grandchildren; brothers, Barrie Olverson of Eden NC, Tyrone Olverson (Shelly) of Columbus, OH, Jesse Olverson (Carla) of Cincinnati, OH; sisters, Sharon Olverson of Eden, NC, Yulanda (Eric) of Cincinnati, OH, Nitiya (Travis) of Cincinnati, OH; his only living aunt, Sarah Manns, one special nephew, Ray-Ray, who was like a son, a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, many cherished friends; and two special cousins that were like brothers, John Lindsay and Carl Singletary.

Terrye will be deeply missed, but his legacy of love, laughter and kindness will live in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
