I Miss You, Mom

I thought of you with love today
But, that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday
And the day before that too.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have is your memory
And a picture in a frame.

Your memories are my keepsake
With which I never part.
God has you in his keepings
But, I will have you in my heart.

Lovingly submitted by,
Your daughters

Journey of Life

Barbara Jean Taylor, daughter of late Thomas and Ellen Taylor, was born on June 20, 1957, in Baltimore, Maryland. She transitioned to her heavenly home on August 20, 2022.

She received her education from the Baltimore City Public Schools system and continued her studies in the Nursing field as a Certified Nursing Assistant. She, then, changed career paths to pursue employment at the Forum Catering at which she worked for many years.

She was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend amongst a host of many other familial and personal titles. Those who were closest to her would note her iridescent personality, strong principles, and relentless dedication to providing for her family. She was known to enjoy spending time with her family and friends, as well as dominating at the spades table.

She accepted Christ into her life at an early age while at Fireside Baptist Church where her grandmother, Rev. Katie Brown-Diggs, was the pastor. She enjoyed visiting her church community at Somerset Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Thomas and Ellen and her brothers, William and Thomas Taylor, Jr.

She leaves to mourn three daughters: Lena Jones (Tony Jones), Katrina Glasscho (Stephen Glasscho), and Kizzy Aleem; three siblings: Daniel Taylor, Tridonna Taylor, and Warren Taylor; seven grandchildren: Chie Aaron, Ajuante Brown (Renee Brown), David Cooper, III (Rita Cooper), Dominic Woods, Rose Jones, Mekhi Aleem, and Alena Aleem; seven great-grandchildren: Jarmari Bryson, Serenity Bryson, Chie Aaron, Melrose Brown, Journee Woods, Amari Cooper, and Jeram Bryson; one uncle, Daniel Taylor; seven aunts: Christine Witherspoon (God-mother and Aunt), Sally Brown, Katie Hall, Gladys Brown, Willa Brown, Malqueen Taylor, Virginia Brown-Nelson, and Gabriele Strauch; three great-aunts: Gertrude Hickman of Massachusetts, Frances Bueford of South Carolina and Maebelle Hickman; one great-uncle, James Wilson, Sr., and a host of cousins and friends.

*Time is too slow for those who wait
Too swift for those who fear
Too long for those who grieve
Too short for those who rejoice
But for those who love -
Time is eternity. In time we'll see you "later"*
