

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little—but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared; Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds; Miss me, but let me go.
