

Betty L. Jadin

April 24, 1945 – December 28, 2024

Betty L. Jadin, 79, Luxemburg, passed away peacefully on Saturday, December 28, 2024. She was born April 24, 1945, to the late Norman J. and Beatrice M. (Vandertie) Malcore, in the township of Lincoln. On September 15, 1962, she married James J. Jadin at St. Peter Church, Lincoln. He preceded her in death on August 28, 2023.

Her love for family kept her involved in both family businesses, J. Jadin INC. and Aude Jewelers. She was a woman filled with grace, love, and compassion, making her family her top priority.

Survivors include her daughter, Lynn (Brian) Seidl; her son, Jerome Jadin and Debbie; four grandchildren, Sarah (Brent) Te Kulve, Brent (Jess) Seidl, Jordan (Madison) Jadin, Jared (Fiancé Nicole) Jadin; three great grandchildren, Colton, Kate, and Hayes; one sister Carol Jorgensen; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Marilyn (Paul) Graff, Lou Ann (Dean) Geitz, Cheryl (Richard) Delebreau; one godchild, Randy Jorgensen; many nieces and nephews.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, James; her parents, Norman and Beatrice Malcore; three brothers-in-law, Alvin Jorgensen, Gary Jadin, and Jack Jadin; her father-in-law and mother-in-law Julius A. and Arlene M. (Vandervelde) Jadin.

Friends may call between 8:45 and 10:45 am, Saturday, January 4, 2025, at St. Peter Church, Lincoln. Funeral 11:00 am Saturday at the church with Rev. Antonio Palaya officiating. Entombment in the Shrine of the Good Shepherd Mausoleum.

McMahon Funeral Home, Luxemburg, is assisting the Jadin family. Online condolences can be shared at McMahonFH.com. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, give.cff.org in memory of Betty L. Jadin.

A special note of thanks is extended to the staff of Autumn Fields and Unity Hospice for their compassionate care.

MCMAHON FUNERAL HOME