

OBITUARY

Gloria Jean Doyle was born to the late Harry Lee and Earnestine Doyle in Quincy, FL. She was the sixth child born to that union.

Gloria attended school Gadsden County Public Schools and graduated from Carter Paramore High School in 1970. She continued her education receiving a Bachelor of Science degree from Stillman College in 1974 and later her Masters Degree from Penn State University.

Gloria moved to Miami where she met Thomas Lockett. The two were married on June 11, 1976 and were blessed to raise three children.

In addition to being a wife, mother, and later grandmother, Gloria was an esteemed Meteorological Mathematician. She was responsible for producing real-time storm and surge information for hurricane landfall. She received numerous accolades and commendations for her work. She dedicated her talents to the National Hurricane Center for 33 years before retiring.

She Leaves not to mourn, but to cherish her memory, her children, Janquilla, Ruby, Thomas Lockett, Jr. Her grandchildren, Porsha Lockett, Quinton Smoak Lockett, Demetria Davis, Trinity Lockett, Samiya Pierre, Ta'Nylah Lockett, and Tionna Lockett. And two great-grandchildren Raniyah Davis and Za'Kari Lockett. Her siblings, Mary Lee Holmes, Delores Doyle, Gail Doyle, and Johnny Doyle. One surviving Aunt, Bernice Crooms and a host of relatives, and friends.

In loving memory of those who preceded her in death: sisters: Lillie Mae Madry, Ester Doyle Gibbons, Barbara Ann Rogers, Laina Faye Doyle and brother, Edward Doyle.