

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Remembering

the life of

RHONDA JOHNSON

1970 - 2026

Rhonda Ann Johnson, 55, of Sedalia, passed away Monday, March 2, 2026.

She was born June 6, 1970, in San Jose, CA, the daughter of the late Norma Jean Clardy. On February 20, 2008, in Sedalia, she married James Bryan Johnson, who survives of the home.

Rhonda loved the outdoors and enjoyed camping, floating, and fishing. She took pride in her yardwork and had a gift for growing beautiful flowers.

She was a devoted homemaker and an excellent cook. Rhonda kept her family connected by hosting Sunday dinners, a tradition everyone looked forward to. Being a mother and "Mimi" to her grandchildren was one of the greatest joys of her life.

Rhonda's smile could light up a room. She was a good listener who made others feel valued and understood. She opened her home and her heart to many, especially children who needed extra care and encouragement. She was kind, generous, and always wanted those around her to feel safe and supported.

A woman of strong faith, Rhonda enjoyed attending WOW Bible Group and found comfort and fellowship there.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Matthew "Buddy" Duran (Heather), of Sedalia, and Luke Jefferies, of Belton; a bonus son, Nick Salas (Dorie); a brother, Lonnie Clardy (Melanie), of Chandler, AZ; seven grandchildren, Lucy Duran (Tyler Blaylock), of Sedalia, Riely Duran and Zach Duran, of Illinois, and Abel, Bentley, Mylo, and Maci; and a great-granddaughter, Stevie Jean.
