

Obituary

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved father, Micheal Brown Sr, who left us on December 4, 2024, at the age of 62. Micheal was born and raised in Dorchester, Massachusetts on January 10th 1962 to Willa Mae Brown and late Relious Randall, he graduated Jeremiah E Burke High School in 1982

Above all, Micheal was a devoted father, grandfather, and friend. For 36 years, Micheal worked with the City of Boston as a Highway Maintenance Supervisor, where he retired, he was well respected and trusted figure in his field. His dedication and hard work were a testament to his strong work ethic, and he took pride in serving the community.

Micheal was known for his impeccable sense of style, always well-dressed and sharp in every situation. He carried himself with a confidence that matched his sense of humor, always ready with a witty remark or a lighthearted joke to bring a smile to those around him. Whether at family gatherings or casual encounters, his personality shone brightly, and he was loved by all who knew him. Beyond his stylish appearance and quick wit, Micheal was a true stand-up guy. His character was defined by integrity, kindness, and a deep commitment to his family. He was always there when needed, offering support, guidance, and unconditional love.

Micheal had a deep and abiding love for his grandchildren, and his role as "Poppy" was one of his greatest joys. His love for his grandchildren knew no bounds, and he cherished every moment spent with them, always putting their needs and happiness first. To his family, he was not just a grandfather but the greatest Poppy in the world—a title he wore with pride and devotion, in addition Micheal was the proud father of Micheal Brown Jr, Marquise Brown, and his Step daughter Tianna Soerheide. In 1997 he joined in marriage with his one and only former wife Peaches which they shared a daughter Majique Brown. His children were the center of his world, and he took great pride in being part of their lives, offering wisdom, guidance, and support. He also leaves behind his siblings Timothy, Sherwood, Matthew, Dwight, Relious, Kelvin, Juliet and late brother Corey along with his cherished grandchildren Jamaurie, Micheal III, Jazmine, Micheala, Marianna, Amani, Samiyah, Carter and Chrome and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nephew's, Nieces and Great friends. His love for his children and family was unmatched, and he will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

He dedicated his life to raising them with compassion, wisdom, and support. His joy was found in family gatherings, simple moments, and watching his children and grandchildren grow.

Though his physical presence will be deeply missed, the lessons he imparted, the love he shared, and the strength he gave to all who knew him will live on forever. He leaves behind a lasting legacy in the hearts of his children, family, and friends, who will continue to cherish his memory and the example he set. Rest in peace, Dad. You will always be loved and never forgotten.

Don't cry, Don't worry, Don't be sad my family and friends

MB- Dad - Poppy is sleeping and at peace riding the clouds.

Words Of Comfort

Gone too soon, we find ourselves asking, Why? How could someone so full of life, laughter, and love leave us so quickly? Your smile, that unmistakable laugh, your signature sarcastic wit, that unmistakable Boston accent, and that walk—these are the things we will miss most. Wherever you went, you brought joy, warmth, and laughter to everyone you encountered.

You gave so much love and cheer to all, every moment you shared with us, every word, every gesture, will forever remain etched in our hearts. You were not just a father, a sibling, or a friend, a Co-worker—you were a soldier, a protector, and an unwavering source of support.

Your love for family was undeniable. Family first was not just a phrase for you, but a way of life. The joy and wisdom you shared with your siblings, your children, and all who loved you will never be forgotten.

Rest now, Pain-Free and Peacefully . While we will carry on without you physically by our side, your spirit will always be with us.

Letter to my Father

To my Father and my best friend, I write these last word's you are definition of a real man and father through my whole life and my incarceration life you were there for me, you never gave up on me you made me strong, I made you proud I didn't let these prison wall stops my growth. I will miss talking to you about everything, I will miss hearing your voice... I made you a promise I will get parole get my act right and I did and you pass away the next day but you prepared me for this, I know you didn't want to suffer and you are with God now and you told me to put it in God's hands, and be strong you know I'm strong | handle anything when I got sentence to life I didn't hurt like It does now.

I wish I can see you now I miss you so much daddy we forgave each other for both of our wrong doings and I made sure to always check on you no matter what I'm going through, daddy.

Been there for my daughter when I couldn't and mother even through you'll went through so much, I cry because I lost my best friend this shit really hurts, but I have to grieve. You know me better than anybody and the time we had to build and bond with each other I'm grateful. I'm not going to let your passing stop my growth because this is all you wanted for me. I wanted to eat dinner with you and mommy and my children, (daddy). put so much stress on you, your sickness is all me the stress you been through, I know you are strong a soldier but life took a toll on you. You weren't a bad father you were the best father..

I was willing to give you my kidney you said no because I had a family of my own, but I'm coming home to step in your footsteps I didn't want to lose you like this and this soon but I know you're watching over me, and over all of us. I love you so so much please know that.....

I promise I will be the glue for my brother and sisters and grandma I will make you proud, I will always love you, your son, your best friend Marquise Brown
