

Forever Tomorrow

*Today will have an ending,
as did yesterday.*

But tomorrows are forever and will never go away.

*Tomorrow will bring sunshine,
and dry out today's rain.
Tomorrow will bring happiness,
and take away our pain.*

*In the future of tomorrow
we too shall pass away,
and then again be with the one whose life we mourn today.*

*Tomorrow brings eternal life,
where we'll be free from sorrow.
With faith, look to a brighter day,*
