

In the bloom of your youth, just 24 years bright,
You left us too soon, like a star in the night. With laughter and dreams, you lit up our days, Now silence surrounds us, in so many ways. The memories we made, like treasures they stay, You'll always be loved that's something that never fades away.

Though time marches on, and the world carries on, The love that we shared, your spirit lives on.
So here's to my brother, forever you'll be, A light in my heart, for all eternity.

Your sister, Takisha

I remember seeing Isaiah in church when he was about 9 years old. Even at that young age, there was something about him quiet maturity and an old soul that made him stand out. He was always respectful, and there was a depth to him that seemed beyond his years.

Although I didn't have the opportunity to know Isaiah as a grown man very well, I had the privilege of introducing him to the team when he joined Planet Marketing and Intel Travel on September 28, 2024. He came in with a strong determination to succeed, and it was clear he was serious about growing in the industry. Despite his decision to step away from the business shortly after joining, he left a lasting impression on me. Isaiah was prompt with his responses, focused, and driven to achieve his goals.

His brief time with us may have been short, but the respect and drive he displayed will stay with me. Isaiah will be deeply missed.

My deepest sympathy!

Natasha

JEREMIAH HUNTER

NOVEMBER 13, 2000 ~ MARCH 23, 2025

FINAL EXHIBITION

Isaiah Jeremiah Hunter, sunrise November 13, 2000, sunset March 23, 2025. Isaiah parents and Alphonso Robinson and the late Lisa Hunter-Robinson.

Isaiah was a beloved son whose light shone brightly in the lives of all who knew him. Affectionately known as "Zay," he was a vibrant spirit with a deep love for life, family, and friends. Isaiah had an infectious smile, complete with charming dimples, and a pair of big, expressive eyes that could light up any room. He was a source of joy and laughter for everyone around him.

Isaiah loved playing football in the neighborhood with family and friends. He also enjoyed music, video games, and basketball. Known for his playful personality, he delighted in practical jokes, always finding ways to make people laugh. A lover of the arts, Isaiah sketched people and places wherever he went. He had a profound passion for history and travel, which was reflected in his love of reading and watching documentaries. Absorbing knowledge like a sponge, Isaiah had a curious and inquisitive mind.

A devoted fan of the Dallas Cowboys, he could often be found cheering passionately for his favorite team. Isaiah also loved playfully teasing his father, a loyal Washington Commanders fan, during their spirited game-day debates, what a sight to see! He enjoyed challenging others to chess matches and was exceptionally skilled at the game. Isaiah had a talent for cooking and took great pride in it. He loved visiting amusement parks, daring friends and family to conquer the tallest roller coasters.

Isaiah had a unique sense of style and resilience. Despite life's challenges, he always found a way to rise above circumstances and prove others wrong. Beyond his many gifts, talents, and interests, Isaiah was known for his vibrant personality, infectious laughter, and ability to bring joy to others. With a warm, radiant smile, he had a special way of lifting people's spirits, often through a good joke.

Wise beyond his years, Isaiah was baptized at the age of six at East Friendship Baptist Church in Washington, D.C. He later became a member of the Spirit of the Living God Baptist Church, where he faithfully attended children's Sunday school and participated in summer camp. His faith was an integral part of his life, shaping his compassionate and loving nature.

Isaiah received his education in the District of Columbia public school system. He further pursued his studies at Penn Foster College, where he honed his skills in carpentry and welding, earning certifications in both fields, as well as in barbering. Driven by his passion for craftsmanship and a strong work ethic, Isaiah worked for ND Construction. Recently, he embarked on an entrepreneurial journey by joining the Planet Marketing InteleTravel business.

Isaiah was preceded in death by his mother, Lisa Hunter-Robinson; grandmother, Odelia A. Hunter Pitt; grandparents, Willie D. Robinson (Callie) and Larry (Barbara) Metcalf; great-aunt, Beverly Hunter; aunt, Melissa A. Pitt; uncles, Royal Robinson and Samuel (Ewan) Robinson; and his cousin, Denise Robinson.

He leaves behind cherished memories with his father, Alphonso, and stepmother, Christel Robinson; siblings, Kisha, Yakina R. "Nay Nay", and Gregory Hunter; extended family, Marcel, Christopher, and Cameron Brannum, a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends will forever carry his love in their hearts.
