

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Marcus Carr was born on February 1, 1975, at 11:38 PM at Good Samaritan Hospital to Clarence and Martha Carr.

He attended Rockdale Elementary School and went to Withrow High School before transferring to Aiken High School, where he graduated. After graduation, Marcus held several jobs, eventually working for LSICo until he became ill. He also worked as an Uber driver until he could no longer continue. Marcus loved making memories, especially with his family. He had a passion for travel and enjoyed playing the lottery every day. Known for his good heart and vibrant spirit, he was the life of the party, always making others laugh. A sports fanatic, his favorite football team was the Green Bay Packers, and his favorite basketball team was the LA Lakers. I will miss sitting and watching the games with him.

Marcus is survived by his children: Marlana Beldsoe, Kenya Davis, Melanie Davis, Devontae Underwood, and Marcus, Jr., all of Cincinnati; one grandson, Christiano Elliott; his parents, Clarence and Martha Carr; his fiancée, Kayla Ellison; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members, and friends.
