

Psalm 23

*"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.¹*

He restores my soul.

*He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.*

*Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.*

*You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever."*

Margaret Ann Hanger

November 4, 1939 – March 18, 2026

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Margaret Ann Hanger (nee Maerz), on March 18, 2026, after a hard-fought battle against illness.

Margaret was born on November 4, 1939, as the first child to Theophiel & Mary Maerz, in Three Hills, AB, where they farmed. At seventeen years old, Margaret moved to Calgary, AB, where she worked as a switchboard operator at AGT & Sears.

She married Arthur "Art" Hanger and was a loving mother to three children. She was a devoted homemaker and excellent hostess, welcoming all who came to visit.

A woman of faith, she was active in her church, participating in Bible studies, potlucks, and the choir, and teaching Sunday School and Vacation Bible School.

Margaret's adventurous spirit led her to join the Marlborough Ladies Softball Team, travel to a number of different countries, and take motorcycle lessons at 57 years of age. Her creative side was seen in her talented sewing ability, drawing and silversmithing jewelry.

She was predeceased by her parents, Theophiel & Mary Maerz, and her sister, Eleanor Rogers.

Margaret is survived by her husband, Art Hanger; her children, Laura, Mitchell, and Jason (Ida) Hanger; her brother, Richard (Janis) März; her sister, Laura (Manfred) Rist; her grandchildren, Kaitlyn, Markus, Lea (Joe), Janry, and Gian; and her great-grandchild, Joseph.

She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and all other family members and friends, whose lives are forever touched by her.

The family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for the sympathy, prayers, kindness, and comforting words shown by so many.

If family and friends so desire, in lieu of flowers, memorial tributes may be made directly to the charity of the donor's choice.
