

Cheyenne Gorbet, age 34, peacefully passed away on Monday, May 25, 2026, at IHS Hospital in Fort Yates, North Dakota. She was born to Shelly White and Paul Gorbet in Greenview, California, on September 13, 1991. At the age of two, Cheyanne moved to Fort Yates, North Dakota, where she spent her formative years.

Cheyenne attended schools in Fort Yates and graduated from Standing Rock Community School in May 2013. During her school years, she gained valuable work experience at the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe Head Start in Fort Yates, where she enjoyed working with children and making a positive impact.

Cheyanne was fiercely dedicated to Lucas and cherished every moment with him. She returned to Fort Yates in February and lived with her mother, Shelly White, until her passing.

Cheyenne was a lively and compassionate individual who enjoyed connecting with others through social media, especially Facebook. She loved animals, taking walks, going to the movies, and sharing a good laugh. Her life was dedicated to her son, Lucas, and her love for him was unwavering.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me
for now I'm free
I'm following the path
God laid for me.*

I took His hand when I heard Him call

*I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love,
to work or play.*

*Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times,
a loved ones touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now. He set me free.*
