

A Mother's Final Word

Ke'Andre, you will always be my baby Dre, my Andre the Giant. No matter how old you became, no matter how much you grew, and no matter how many people knew and loved you, you would always be my baby.

I will miss your voice, your laughter, your opinions, your arguments, your smile and all the little things that made you who you were. I will miss watching you love your family and seeing the joy you brought to your nieces and nephews. I will miss knowing that when you walked through the door, there was always going to be a story, a debate, some laughter, or something good cooking.

There are no words big enough to describe the emptiness your absence has left behind.

You will always be my son. Nothing-not even death-can ever change that. You will forever be my baby Dre, and I will carry your love and memory with me for the rest of my life.

Rest peacefully, my baby Dre

Forever my Andre the Giant

Forever my son

Forever loved

Forever missed

Forever in my heart

Until we meet again,

Mom

FEBRUARY 28, 2000 – SEPTEMBER 9, 2026

AGE 26

Ke'Andre La'Juan Johnson aka "Madd Max" passed away on September 9, 2026, at the age of 26 in Oklahoma City, OK.

Ke'Andre was an outstanding person who was well-mannered, respectful, loving, outspoken, and always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He had a heart of gold and cared deeply about the people around him. He was also very opinionated. If there was someone or something he did not like, he never wasted time letting you know. He was a great debater, and if he believed he was right, he was going to prove his point. He would grab a dictionary or look it up online just to prove his argument. If he discovered he was wrong, he would always admit it. That honesty, confidence, and willingness to stand firmly in what he believed were simply part of who he was.

Ke'Andre had his own spiritual journey throughout his life. In 2012, he accepted salvation, beginning his faith journey. In 2021, after deep inner reflection, he decided that Islam was the faith he felt was for him. His faith was a personal part of his journey, and his family honors & respects the path he chose. Family meant everything to him. He loved his siblings and would do anything to make them smile. If he was ever mad at you, it never lasted long. His love extended especially to his many nieces and nephews, who looked up to him. They knew that whenever Uncle Ke'Andre came around, it was time to have fun, and it was probably time to eat whatever he had created in the kitchen. The laughter, food, love, and memories they shared with him will forever be treasured.

Ke'Andre began playing football at the age of 7 and continued playing throughout his school years, including high school. In 2018, he graduated from EPIC Charter School, an accomplishment he was very proud of. He loved fishing, making music, and putting together his outfits. He had a shoe collection that was out of this world, and he took pride in making sure his shoes matched his outfits perfectly. Whatever he wanted to accomplish, he gave it more than 100%. He was determined, passionate, and never afraid to be himself. Above all, Ke'Andre was a loving father to his son, Rayshaun Alexander, who will forever carry his father's love & legacy with him.

Ke'Andre leaves to cherish his precious memory his beloved mother, Lakeshia (Secdrick) Rose; father Andre Ellison; son Rayshaun Alexander; sisters; Mariesha Ayers, Mi'Yonna Johnson, & Raquel Rose; brother Ke'Aunce Johnson; stepsisters Ebony, Staciana, & Kathryn Rose; God brother Julius Cargile; God sister Trasandra Carson; great-grandmother Mary Johnson; grandparents, Frances (Billy) Dumas, Stanley (Carolyn) Jackson, Rhonda (Tim) Knuckles, & Kathryn Hines; great-aunts, Gerri (Bird) Rose; aunts Ebony (OC) Roberts & Lovenique Penn; uncles Shauncey, Antonio "Superman", & Terrace Rose; Tirrell (Alicia) Johnson, Kevin Wright, Marcus Ellison & Lovell Ellison. And a host of cousins & friends, along with many nieces & nephews who looked up to him and cherished every moment they spent with him.

Ke'Andre was preceded in death by his beloved God sister N'Kya Cargile; great-grandmother Pearly Jackson; great-uncles Dennis & Samuel Jackson; and great-aunt Sheila Jackson.

To know Ke'Andre was to know someone who could make you laugh, challenge your mind, help out when you needed him, and tell you exactly what was on his mind.

His life may have been far too short, but the love he gave, the memories he created, the music he made, the meals he cooked, the debates he had, and the countless moments he shared with his family and friends will live on forever.

Ke'Andre will be missed more than words can express by everyone whose life he touched.
