

POEM

A Precious one from us has gone, his voice is silent.

Shine for Jesus
Shine your light
Be a beacon in the darkest night, light the fire, burn so bright
Shine your light for Jesus Christ
It is how you walk, the things you do
It is how you talk that spreads good news
It is who you are and what you do that let his love come shining through.

John 11:25-26

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. 26 And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

REFLECTIONS

Dante Maurice Carter

Dante Maurice Carter was born October 21, 1983 In Yokosuka Japan to the parents of Ava Joyce King and Jonathan Pavy. He departed this life on August 4, 2018.

Dante's parents were in the Navy, which caused him to travel a lot. Upon returning to the states he attended school in Norfolk and Cincinnati. Dante had a love for drawing and he became a tattoo artist (King Ink) inking people from Virginia, up and down the eastern seaboard to Cincinnati. Dante also had a passion for motorcycles and was a member of a motorcycle club.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife Jacqueline Carter, his mother Ava Joyce King, his father Jonathan Pavy, and stepfather Vincent King. His sisters Lakeisha Rogers and her husband Bryce, Twinkle Williams of Canada, Cheryl Cogburn and Vixxen Pavy of Seattle, and his brother Patrick from Trinidad and Tobago. His daughters D'Maia, D'Asia, Skyler and son Germaine together with his aunts, uncles and lots of friends and relatives.

Dante,

I was supposed to spend the rest of my life with you. And then I realized... you spent the rest of your life with me

I smile because I know you love me till the day you went away and I will keep loving us forever... until the day we are together again.

Forever the love of your life your wife,

Jacqueline
