THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF
Bobby
RAY FLEMING

Bobby Ray Fleming was born November 10, 1956, in Las Vegas, Nevada, to Wilma J. Thomas. Manual Varra, Jr. was stepfather to Bobby. He was one of six children and a life-long native of Las Vegas, Nevada.

Bobby attended Kit Carson Elementary School, Roy Martin Jr. High School, and graduated from Las Vegas High School. After high school Bobby enjoyed modeling and his hobbies were cooking, dancing and crafting. He practiced martial arts and was a gadget guy. Bobby was also a card dealer at the Silver Nugget Casino, Jerry's Nugget Casino as well as other casinos in Las Vegas. Later in life he enjoyed his position as a driver for Whittlesea Cab Company which suited his personality because he was a people person. Bobby was also known as the "Tamale Man" for his love for making and selling the best hot tamales.

The sun set on the life of Bobby Ray Fleming on June 5, 2025, which happened to have been the same day as his late brother, Norris' birthday, when he was summoned home by our Heavenly Father.

Bobby is joining his mother; Wilma J. Varra, stepfather; Manual J. Varra, Jr. and brother; Norris B. Fleming, all who preceded him in death. Unfortunately, his brother Larry D. Fleming joined them on the day after Bobby's passing. Bobby leaves to cherish in his loving memories siblings; Donald G. Fleming, Debbie "Cookie" Fleming-Glover and Antonio F. Varra. Bobby helped raise nieces; Xaveria Fleming and Nicole (Fleming) Cuiffo. He also leaves behind an abundance of loving nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews as well as a host of extended family and friends.

LOVING TRIBUTES TO
Bobby
RAY FLEMING

BELOVED PHRASES OF BOBBY:

“Twer like, the cats in the cradle...”

“Ain’t nothin’ jumpin’ but the peas in the pot.
And the peas wouldn’t jump if the water wasn’t hot.”

“Don’t take any wooden nickels.”

John 1:12-13

I get teased for always keeping the last spoonful of tamale meat in the refrigerator after I finish my batch. But there’s a reason I do it. If you multiply each spoonful by the number of batches I prepare in a year, that comes to a tidy sum. That’s why they call me “Budget Bob”.
