The Obituary

Lauree "Granny" Magee Hayes was born on April 17, 1931, to Spence and Willie Magee. She departed this life on March 21, 2026, at Simpson General Hospital in Mendenhall, Mississippi.

Lauree was married to the late Mr. Onet Hayes in 1973. She was a member of Shiloh M.B Church where she served faithfully until her health failed her. She was employed at Universal Manufacturing (later known as Magnetek) for 30 years until her retirement. She then worked as a private home caregiver. Granny loved being in her garden, tending to her flowers, and taking care of her family.

She is survived by: her daughters, Renetta Magee and Henretta Lott, both of D'Lo, Mississippi; her son, S.L (Anna) Oatis of Killen, Texas; one brother, Lee Artis Magee of D'Lo, Mississippi; ten grandchildren who she helped to raise, Tammy Lott, Janice (Russell) Agee, Corey (Tiffany) Lott, Curtis (Vicky) Magee, Roslyn Lott, Ebony (Lance) Gray, Courtney Lott, Anthony (Sameerah) Magee, Tilba and Kadeem Smith; 24 great grandchildren; 10 great great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Today is different...

Today is different...
You've been called home.
A peaceful sadness in the stillness roams.
A Heavenly presence washes over us all...
We know what rises must eventually fall.
And though we lost you, our very own,
we take solace in knowing you're never alone.
You left this world, but we do not fear.
Your memory will live on year after year.
And while our hearts do grieve,
we will find some peace.
You're with the angels now,
in this bittersweet soul release.
It's like sunshine through rain,
tears of sadness, but not of pain.
For you're in a better place
with no tears, regret, or hurting.
Your spirit is alive, your compassion unending.
Your limitless love still felt by so many.
So spread your wings and learn to fly,
For we know, this is only a temporary goodbye.

Love Always—Your Children

A Legacy of Love

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Psalm 116:15

A wife, a mother, a granny too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife, not just as a mother,
not just as our granny.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So, go in peace, you've earned your sleep.
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

Lovingly from Your Grandchildren
