Obituary

Calvin Mitchell Yeomans, born October 9, 1954, passed away on November 2, 2026, at the age of 72. Born in Savannah, Georgia, to Marcus and Gloria McCumber Yeomans, Calvin lived most of his life in Reidsville. He attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witness in Reidsville and was known for enjoying the simple pleasures that brought people together. He loved fishing, listening to Elvis Presley and country music, watching westerns on television, and visiting friends. These interests reflected a life rooted in familiar joys, good company, and the comfort of home. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Calvin will be remembered with love by his family. He is survived by his daughters, Detra Gaston of Glennville and Trina Cotoia of Auburn, Kentucky; his son, Kris Yeomans and his wife, Nicole, of Dallas, Texas; his sisters, Karen (Dean) McLeod of Reidsville, and Patricia “Patty” Jernigan of Andersonville; and by his grandchildren, Kaleb Cotoia, Emily Yeomans, Kaitlyn Cotoia, Eden Yeomans, and Kallie Cotoia. he is also survived by several nieces and nephews.
