

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Valmeta P. Luper

Valmeta P. Luper passed away on July 9, 2024, at her home in Sedalia, surrounded by her family. She was born in Sedalia, MO, on November 11, 1944. She was the daughter of Flora and Kenneth, who both preceded her in death.

On November 4, 1964, she was united in marriage to her husband, Dickie (Dick) Luper, who preceded her in death by just ten days. They had been married to each other for nearly 60 years, and it wasn't a surprise that they passed so close together.

Valmeta's love for her family was evident in everything she did. She worked as a nurse for many years, but her true joy came from spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-granddaughter. She also had a passion for travel, often visiting Colorado and spending weekends at the lake.

Valmeta is survived by her two daughters, Teresa Stine (Joe) and Pamela Loomis (Vaughn); three grandsons, Sean Loomis (Anthony), Brett Allen, and Luke Loomis; great-granddaughter Kinsley Allen; and brother Eldred Schrader (Peggy).

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Kenneth Schrader, and three sisters, Joy Nolting, Kennedean Long, and Della Waterfield.
