

Patsy Lee (Tiensvold) Mulloy was born on November 4, 1953, in Tacoma, Washington, to Norris and Dolores (Carroll) Tiensvold. She passed away on February 22, 2026, at Monument Health in Rapid City, South Dakota, after a brief illness.

The oldest of six children, Patsy grew up and attended school in Chugiak, Alaska, where her formative years shaped her resilience and independence. She remained in Alaska through her school years before moving to Rapid City, South Dakota, as an adult in the early 1970s.

Throughout her life, Patsy was devoted to those she loved. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. On August 3, 1987, she married her soulmate, Bruce Mulloy, and in 1991 they moved to Union Center, South Dakota. Their life together was one of partnership, commitment, and shared purpose, grounded in love and mutual respect.

Patsy spent much of her career as a bookkeeper and tax preparer, skills she learned while working alongside her mother. She was well known and respected for her professionalism, integrity, and willingness to help others, building lasting relationships through her work and leaving a meaningful impression on those she served. Outside of her work, she was a gifted craftswoman who enjoyed quilting and needlework, often creating pieces that were shared with and treasured by family.

Patsy was the proud mother of five children: Trina Reese, Christopher Pickens, Elaine (Randy) Smith, Carol-Anne (Jade) Hlavka, and Marie (Jeff) Koupal. She took great joy in watching her family grow and was especially proud of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, celebrating each milestone with quiet pride and unwavering support.

Above all else, Patsy loved her family. She spoke of them often and held each one close to her heart. Her legacy is one of devotion, strength, and quiet generosity—values that will continue to live on through those who loved her.

She is survived by her husband, Bruce; her children; eleven grandchildren—Marty, Angela (Shawn), Rowan, Carston, Holden, Maren, Waylon, Zeke, Briggs, Tiberius, Magnolia; two great-grandchildren—Isabel and Zoey; her sister Joy (John); and her brothers Norris Jr. (Lisa) Tiensvold and Russ (Chris) Tiensvold.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Norris and Dolores Tiensvold; her sister Roxanne Tiensvold; and her brother Roy Tiensvold.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to a charity of your choice in Patsy's name.

Thank you for your presence and condolences.

In Loving Memory

Patsy L. Mulloy

November 4, 1953 ~ February 22, 2026

Legacy of Love

A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

-Author Unknown-

The family invites you to join them
for fellowship following the service.

In Loving Memory Of

Patsy L. Mulloy

Date of Birth
November 04, 1953

Date of Death
February 22, 2026

Memorial Service

Thursday, March 5, 2026 at 10:00 am
Central Meade County Community Center
Union Center, South Dakota

Officiant

Pastor Robert MacDonald

Musical Selections

“Angels Among Us”

-Alabama

“Amazing Grace”

-George Jones

“I Will Always Love You”

-Dolly Parton

Final Resting Place

Boneita Springs Cemetery
Enning, South Dakota