Dear Daddy,

I miss you a lot and think of you every day.

I miss all the memories we shared together.

You always called me on my birthday and it will never be the same.

I will always remember you,

and you will always be in my heart.

You taught me how to drive a car at three years old and I will never forget that.

You always tried hard to buy me things that I wanted when I asked.

I know you are watching over me every day.

Karter

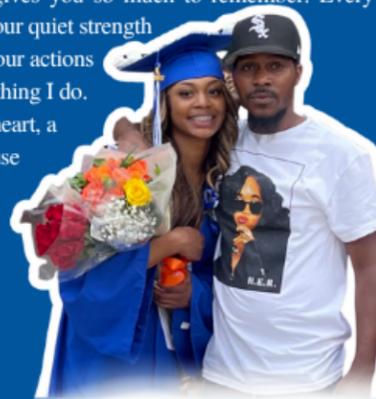

To my dad, you were always one of the strongest people I ever met in my life. You cheered everyone up when they were down and loved all people equally. Your family and friends will always love you. You always did your best when it came to anything. You were a great father and made it so I could never ask for a different one. I will always love you and you will forever be in everyone's heart.

Love Elijah

Dad

I wish I could hug you one last time.... I keep playing the memories over and over in my head I couldn't save you dad!!! the worst day of my life was the day you left my side I miss you. Dad I'm so sorry this happened to you it's hard to forget a dad that gives you so much to remember. Every memory feels like a treasure — your laughter, your words, your quiet strength that held our world together. You taught me more through your actions than any book ever could, and your love still echoes in everything I do. Though you're no longer here, your presence lives on in my heart, a reminder that the best parts of who I am will always be because of you. I LOVE You dad today, tomorrow and always your

PASTOR MARK ABRAMS

Rasheen Ikeem McKie was born to Tracey Brown and the late Wayne Martin on May 26th 1986, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He tragically passed on October 20th 2025.

Rocky received his early childhood education from the Philadelphia Public School System. Rocky was an entrepreneur with many talents and very good with his hands. He owned and operated McKie & Sons Cleaning & Moving Service.

Rocky loved traveling, cooking and listening to music specifically 90s R&B. His favorite holidays were Thanksgiving and Christmas because he was a giver and loved spending time with his family more than anything especially the children. Rocky was definitely a Mommas Boy... He often confided in his Mother who he considered his Best Friend. Rocky had a larger than life personality and had love for everyone he encountered. He truly believed in making memories and cherishing the people in his life.

Last, but certainly not least Rocky loved South Philly and was a diehard EAGLES FAN.

We have all been truly blessed by his presence, his love, generosity, and charm.

He was preceded in death by his father, Wayne Martin, Grandmother Harriet Mckie, His best friend Wooka, and close friend Duper.

Rocky leaves to cherish his memories: His devoted parents, Tracey and Bruce Brown. His Children: Nayonna, Elijah, and Karter. Nine Brothers: Wayne, Darnell,Shaunta,Bruce Jr.,Aaron,Corry, Isaiah,Tyrone and Makaya. Two sisters: Latasha and Aysia. Grandfather: Arthur Sr. Three God-Children: Ghazalah, Zion, and Shaniyah who he helped raised. His Significant other:Aineya. A Host of Nephews, Nieces, Uncles, Aunts,Cousins and Friends. Lastly his Dog Harry.

To my Big Brother

I never knew life without you
I didn't know I was supposed to.
When I took my first step, you were one of the ones I walked to.
And before I could even talk,
I knew I could talk to you.
You always said how I made you proud,
and that I was stronger than I knew.
But I know in my heart I was strong,
because of you.
You showed me a lot of things,
I learned a lot I didn't know,
But you forgot to teach me one last thing-
how to let you go.
There isn't a day that goes by that I don't still have so many questions why.
Every morning and every night,
when time is standing still,
are the moments it hurts the most,
because that's when I truly know it's real.
So when I have a moment,
I find a song to get me through.
Every day,
I'll always play a different song for you.

From Aaron aka Big Bro!

My first brother, we went from dirty diapers and onesies to growing up to be strong independent men. You protected me, you never let anyone talk bad about me especially in your presence. I watched you grow from a boy to becoming a man, a dad, and entrepreneur, a go getter, and just a man of honor and integrity. I could write for an eternity about the things we've been through, past and present, the things we wanted to accomplish, the goals we had and just how we looked out for each other whenever we could. We hugged, we fought, we clashed, always said "I love you", man we did it all. And now it's going to be my fight every day to keep your memory alive and well. I'll live on knowing you always had my back and with the comfort of knowing you'll be up there watching over me, over Mom & Pops, over all of us. From the womb to the tomb brother. I'll always carry you with me. I love you and I'm gonna miss you.

Forever your little sister. ❤️
