REFLECTING THE LIFE OF

Jessie Wayne Shumpert

Jessie Wayne Shumpert was born on September 9, 1955, to the late Willie Bob Shumpert and Mary D. Shumpert. At a young age, he joined Pine Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

In his younger years, he worked on the Hussey Sod farm until his health declined.

He leaves behind his wife, Linda Kay Shumpert; three sons, Michael Pounds, Eddie Pounds, and Timothy Pounds; and two sisters, Letitia Ligon and Janice Hollis (Alonza), both of Fulton, Mississippi. He also leaves behind his sisters-in-law: Joeann Pounds, Joyce Hughes, Daisy Blair, Myra Mabry, Eunice Young, Maxine Shumpert, all of Fulton, Mississippi, and Corrine Shumpert, from Amory, Mississippi and Alma Shumpert of St. Louis, Missouri. He also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews.

ORDER OF SERVICE

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. ~John 14:1-3"

MEMORIES TO CHERISH

Until We Meet Again

To my Husband, those special memories of you will always bring a smile.
If only I could have you back for just a little while.

Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do. You always meant so very much and always will do too.
The fact that you're no longer here
will always cause me pain.
But you're forever in my heart.

Until we meet again.
