

Memories

I thought of you today, but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday and the days before too.
I think of you in silence. I often speak your name.
All I have are memories and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part.
God has you in his arms, I have you in my heart.

Your invited to join the family for a memorial balloon release at :

Life Reflections

*F*elicity Coleman was born on a cold day in November to Vickie Coleman and Tony L. Williams.

She is survived by both of her parents and her siblings Michael O. Coleman, Ledonnis D. Coleman, Fallon Coleman, David L. Coleman, Justin Cetoutei, Tony A. Williams, Shakia M. Coleman and Dania S. Landrum. She is also survived by her only child Michael L.D Coleman. She leaves nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, extended family and friends who loved her dearly.

She had a true zest for life and fun-loving, easy going polarizing personality that quickly enraptured everyone she met. Felicity loved her family and friends with her whole heart.

Felicity passed on a warm summer night in July, as her life was taken unexpectedly while doing what she loved, which was enjoying life.
