LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Mrs. Jennifer Walton Generette was born April 19, 1967, to the late Vera Walton and Percy Walton, Sr. Jennifer accepted Christ at an early age and joined St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church and later moved her membership to Mt. Salem Missionary Baptist Church.

Jennifer was a member of the graduating Class of 1985.

Jennifer's favorite hobby was BINGO. Everybody that knew Jennifer, knew if it was after 4:00p.m., she was at her favorite place to be. BINGO lost a good one! You will be missed BINGO QUEEN.

Jennifer was preceded in death by her mother: Vera Walton; father: Percy Walton, Sr.; three sisters: Evelyn Spires Williams, Angeline Buford, and Zelma Moore; and one brother: Percy Walton, Jr.

Jennifer leaves to cherish her memory, her loving husband: Roy Generette, Jr.; three daughters: Tramora (Bobby) Swinney, Trakittiya Generette, and Iesha Williams; four sons: Andrew Taylor, Roy Generette IV, Trakiunte Generette, and Roy Tavaris Generette III; grandchildren: Tramarion Davis, Kentrell Williams, Trakamrion Swinney, Madison Adams, Ameila Taylor, Ayla Bibbs, and Yahari Fox; one great granddaughter: Khyionni Davis; three brothers: Archie (Amanda) Anderson, Jaricho Lee Walton, and Sammie Ellis, Joe Mitchell; best friend: Nako Blunt; a friend more like a sister: Victoria Carson; play sister: Wanda Collum; two special friends: Christine Moton and Terry Fox; godchildren: Lavonia Allen, Fredricus Blunt, Emily Blunt, Zontavius Blunt, Natavius Blunt, and Keon Batts; nieces and nephews that she helped raise as her own: Eurika (Zerrick) Grady, Quincy Walton, Julius Spires and Joseph Spires; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
