

"The Broken Chain"

Little did we know that afternoon, God was going to call your name. In life, we loved you dearly; in death, we'll do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, but know you did not go alone. For a part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories and unforgettable times. Your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you're always by our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. As God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Love you, Auntie,
Eric Daniels

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Obituary

Terri Lynn Nelson was born on November 24, 1963, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Willie and Idella Nelson. She was raised in the Village of Lincoln Heights, where she built lifelong memories and strong family bonds.

Lynn was a sweetheart—kind, gentle, and possessing an innocent, loving soul. She especially enjoyed spending time with her father, watching old cowboy movies, and visiting her mother’s home to spend time together with whichever sibling happened to be there.

Terri Lynn was preceded in death by her sisters, Claudia Nelson and Karen Daniels. She leaves to cherish her memory her brother, Willie George Nelson, and her sisters, Gloria Williams, Deborah Moon, Daphne Nelson, Trina Nelson, and Amanda Pettis.

Lynn leaves to cherish her memory her three sons, Donovan Nelson (Daenisha), Daron Nelson, and Kalum Goins. She was deeply loved by her grandchildren—Kanye, Da’ryiah, Darion, Dakari, Daron Jr., Ka’Nylah, and Ka’Myah—and her great-grandchild, Kahari. Lynn was affectionately known as “Nana” by her grandchildren.

She also leaves to cherish her memory a host of loving friends, nieces, and nephews.
