Life Profile

Douglas Klent Scott was born April 24, 1955 in Spartanburg, SC to Beulean Staggs and Silas Gist. On August 30, 2022, God dispatched his angels to bring him home to live in eternal peace. He was proceeded in death by his son, Douglas “Lamar” Scott, mother, Beulean Staggs, father, Silas Gist, bonus dad, Boyce “Milky” Staggs and sister JoAnn Moon.

He was a 1973 graduate of James F. Byrnes High School and a retired employee of Phil Chem.

Douglas was a faithful member and musician at Shiloh Baptist Church for most of his life. He also served at Ray of Hope Reconciliation Ministries, White Hall Independent Methodist Church, and Rebirth Missionary Baptist Church. For over 40 years, he was a powerful lead singer of the Happy Land Singers, in addition to playing the keyboard and singing with the Gospel Crusaders.

Singing and playing with the Happy Land Singers was his passion. It was an awesome gift given from God. He loved every single member, past and present. He was loved by many, so much so he was given affectionate nicknames over the years such as Motion Man, Duckplucker, Happy, Dougie Dawg and Uncle Doug!

Mr. Scott leaves to cherish fond memories, his wife of 44 years, Doris Scott, three daughters, Zondra (Stephen) Terry, April (Aaron) Davis, Shameeka (Steve) McConnehead, one son, Dequan Jones, and five grandchildren. He also leaves cherished memories with three sisters, Minister Wendy Drummond, Kathy Sullivan, Margaret Bradley, a special uncle, Otis Gist, and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and Friends.
