Christina Soltis, daughter of Thalia Denson, was born April 5, 1965 in Aurora, Illinois. She departed this life, April 3, 2026 in Windsor Estates Care Center, Camdenton, Missouri at the age of sixty years, eleven months and twenty-nine days.

Christina was preceded in death by her mother; grandmother, Nora Carrol; grandfather, Hugh Denson; sister, Anami; niece, Alma; and her dog child, Ratatouille (Ratty).

She is survived by her niece, Brittany Collum and husband Jesse of Richland, Missouri; their children, Langston, Presley, Natalie, and Lashlan; uncle, Tony Denison and husband Paul Holtzman of Pheonix, Arizona; brother-in-law, Coty Beaman of Montreal, Missouri; dad, Robert Rivera and wife Amanda of East Chicago, Illinois; brother, Jason Hunter, wife Marie and son Carter; nephew, Steven Cothren and son Zia; niece, Jaishana and her children Izaak and Jackson; other relatives and many friends.

Christina moved a lot in her youth, living in Glenellen, Illinois, Chicago, Las Vegas, Oceanside, California, Florida, New York, and eventually, Missouri where she spent her adult life.

In her spare time, she enjoyed listening to music, singing, drinking coffee, and above all, spending time with her family and her dogs. Christina loved to laugh.

She was a loving and a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and her accomplishments and will treasure the memories she created for her family and friends.
